There are funds available from other sources – and LR is developing an equity & leadership cohort, 100 participants, webinar, facilitated by Regina Stanback-Stroud (RFS Consulting). Participants will gain tangible leaderships skills in anti-discrimination. POD has no space available until construction ends, and the use of 6-160 will be used, when available, as a training space. LR indicated this is a great opportunity for classified, like CORA but for non-teaching employees, 4 modules-10 weeks, 20 hours, will apply for PGB credit. It will be for managers and classified only, LR suggested that CPDC can select classified staff to lead conversations addressing micro-aggressions among team members or other staff. LR indicated that this will be posted in classified newsletter. Title V is hosting an antisemitism panel on 01/26/23. LR was invited to return to LLR division to conduct follow up training in DiSC—a deeper dive.

PDC Update(s) – Met in December and will meet in March. PFM is going to PAC on 01/11/23. Classified C&T funds have been spent for FY22-23.

Budget – CareerWise – in-person session at 5:00 a.m. will need to include hotel stay in the cost/expense. Hold 1-5:00 a.m. session or possibly 7:00 p.m. on Friday(s) evening. GG will email ME a list of the shifts and start time. ME will contact the vendor to see if they are available on Friday evening.

PD Planning 2022-23

- a. CPD Day Keynote speaker (ME) – Update – LR indicated that Justin Jones-Fosu is available and will be following up with POD after 01/24/23. Part of the discussion will include the topic and funding, negotiate contract, and meet timeline for board agenda.
- b. Budget (ME) - Confirmed Newleaf and CareerWise modalities. Newleaf will be all online and CareerWise will have 1-in-person and 2-online with a possible additional session online. ME will follow up with CareerWise to determine availability for Friday evening training. ME to run budget numbers to see how much funding increase will be needed for CareerWise costs for in-person training and will report out at the next committee meeting.
- c. PD Needs/Interests Survey (RA) – Survey uploaded to Teams folder for review, the past version needs to be revised. JL suggested a taskforce—3 ppl, RA suggested bringing in Research office to assist. JL willing to start the process and RA and JJ will participate as well. This group will take lead on planning and follow-up. All CPDC committee members are welcome to participate. Will bring update to February’s CDPC meeting.
- d. CPD Day - Taskforce Meeting and Workshop Planning – Keynote was selected and contacted after the 12/13/22 committee meeting. RA will reach out to fall Flex Day workgroup (after the spring session) to discuss the call for RFP for fall. RA indicated that after the RFP results, then look at inviting other campus presenters to fill out the remainder of the workshops. JL indicated that Tania Anders is available to conduct a sustainability session during CPD Day.
