The Sophia B. Clarke Theater is a formal 440 seat full proscenium theater that wraps the audience around a performance. By providing a circular form and box seats at the perimeter, audience intimacy with the stage and with each other is maximized. The state and fly tower are at a professional scale and contain equipment equal to the finest state-of-the-art theaters both regionally and internationally.

The Music Recital Hall, with perimeter lined box seating in a similar wrap around shape as the Clarke Theater, provides for intimate musical performances. The Recital Hall is a "lively" acoustical space richly articulated with reflective surfaces of maple wood, acoustical plaster and acoustically shaped with a 43' high ceiling. Sound reflectors above the stage further support acoustical distribution.

The Studio Theater is adjacent to the Clarke Theater and is surrounded by a scene shop, costume shop, dressing rooms, and faculty offices. The 40' x 50' x 40' theater allows for total dramatic performance flexibility. A hanging pipe grid allows light and scene flexibility. Retractable bleacher seating can accommodate up to 150 people. The Studio Theater is such a flexible facility, it can accommodate any seating and scene configuration.

The Dance Studio is a 56' x 85' x 30' high mirrored room that allows for a grand level of physical movement whether vertical or horizontal. With its ceiling and upper walls painted white and bathed in clerestory natural lighting, it is an appealing and brilliant practice space by day. By night, retractable bleacher seating for 150 people and a theatrical ceiling grid provide for formal performance.
