

History and General Education

History courses fall into three separate General Education Areas—The Humanities (Area C), American Institutions (Area D1), and Social, Political, and Economic Institutions (Area D2). Several of our courses fit into more than one General Education Area. Each area has a clearly stated, expected outcome for the students (General Education Outcome or GEO). Listed below are the three areas, the History courses that fall under each area, and the GEO for each area.

Area C—The Humanities

History of the United States 1, 7, 7H, 8, and 8H	World Civilization 3, 3H, 4, and 4H
History of Asia 10 and 11	History of Mexico 19
African American History 30 and 31	History of Africa 35
History of American Women 36	History of California 39
History of Mexican-Americans 40	The Humanities 1

GEO: Students completing an assignment in Humanities Area C will be able to identify the influence of culture on human expression.

Area D1--American Institutions

History of the United States 1, 7, 7H, 8, 8H	African American History 30 and 31
History of American Women 36	History of Mexican Americans 40

GEO: Students will be able to differentiate among changes in the American constitutional government over time.

Area D2—Social, Political, and Economic Institutions

World Civilization 3, 3H, 4, and 4H	History of Asia 10 and 11
History of Mexico 19	History of Africa 35
History of California 29

GEO: Students completing relevant assignments in Area D2 courses will analyze the relationship between social, political, and/or economic institutions and human behavior.