If you cannot afford the fee, you may receive a waiver. Please check the box and information will be sent to you.

Classes, workshops, and meetings will be scheduled from approximately 9am to 7pm every day. You may attend as many or as few of these as you like.

If you are interested in two units of transferable college credit (English 99), we will add you to that class on the day of the conference.

Those who register for this class must attend at least 18 hours of the conference and complete either 2 short stories, 2 short non-fiction pieces, or 6 poems to receive credit for the class. Register yourself for this class, but during the first day of the conference, you will need to meet with John Brantingham to sign your class contract. Time will be set aside during the first meeting on Friday morning, but if you cannot meet at this time, you may meet with him later that day. If you are not a Mt. SAC student currently, and you would like to receive credit for this class, you must first apply to Mt. San Antonio College.

However, you need not be a Mt. SAC student to attend the conference. Register as a student ONLY if you would like class credit.

You will receive a schedule of events closer to the conference date.
