Application of Learning

There are several steps to this application:

- a. First, ask your Skills Development Instructor for the textbook entitled On Course: Strategies for Creating Success in College and in Life.
- b. Next, you will notice that each chapter has its own case study in critical thinking. Choose three case studies to complete. Write your responses to the case studies on a separate piece of paper.
- c. Explain your case study responses to your Skills Development Instructor.

Assessments

Ask your Skills Development Instructor for the final reflection for this assignment entitled Reflection is Part of Learning.
