

'08 Spring SCHEDULE of CREDIT CLASSES

READING the SCHEDULE of CLASSES

- A — course prefix
- B — course number
- C — course title
- D — CAN*
- E — prerequisite
- F — course description
- G — transfer code
- H — number of units
- I — reference number
- J — days class meets
- K — materials fee
- L — time class meets
- M — name of instructor
- N — building number
- O — room number

* CAN (California Articulation Number) is a statewide system of identifying certain transferable, introductory courses by giving them a common prefix and number recognized by all California universities.

	A	B	C	G	H
	PSYC 1A — General Psychology				3 Units
D	(CAN PSY 2)				Degree Appropriate, CSU, UC
E	Prerequisite: Eligibility for ENGL 68.
	Develops an understanding of the basic principles underlying human behavior. The subject matter, methods and techniques of scientific psychology are presented. Emphasizes development, thinking, learning and remembering, sensation and perception, motivation, emotions, physiology, social interaction, personality formation and therapeutic techniques.
K	Materials Fee: $3
	003736Th	6:30 am - 9:30 am	Long, J	7- 232
	I	J	L	M	N O

Note: 12:00 p.m. is Noon