

English Verb Tenses

Resources:

Five or more hours :

- Software – “Azar” – Go to the Writing Center OR the Language Learning Center (LLC) to get started on intermediate or advanced “Azar” software for intense verb tense review.
- Verbs Boot Camp – Go to the Writing Center or online at mtsac.edu/writingcenter for current boot camp schedule.
- Classes – Check the current American Language (AMLA) class schedule to register for classes on verb review, writing, etc.
- Passport Rewards – Go to the LLC. Join the program and work independently in the lab on language topics of your choice.

Two hours (approximately):

- Verbs Workshops – Go to the Writing Center or online at mtsac.edu/writingcenter for the current workshop schedule. Topics include: Punctuation, Article Usage, Thesis Statements, SV Agreement, Sentence Writing, and more.
- Directed Language Activity (DLA) – Go to the Writing Center or online at mtsac.edu/writingcenter for a list of DLAs for verb tenses and other grammar topics.

One hour or less (approximately):

- See the specialized non-native speaker tutor in the Writing Center to learn about your language weakness in a particular writing assignment. Make an appointment @ www.mtsac.edu/writingcenter/tutoring

Locations:

*The Writing Center – 26B-1561A

*The Language Learning Center - LLC – 6-264