

Need help citing sources?!?

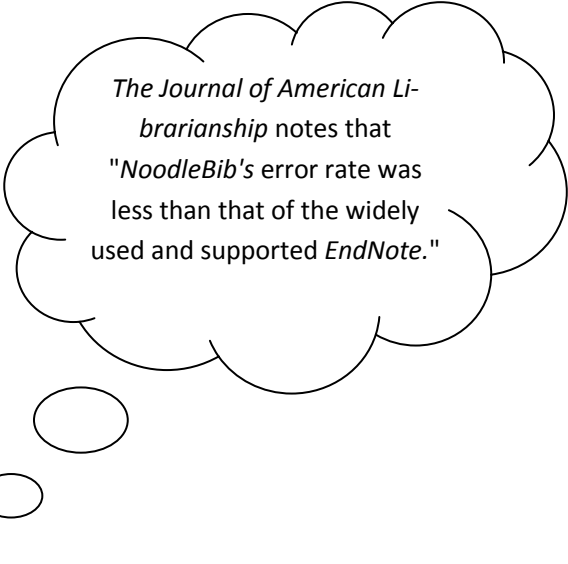

NoodleBib®

You may be thinking, “Noodle what?!?”

If you need help citing your sources and creating a works cited page, reference page, or footnotes, look no further! The Writing Center now offers NoodleBib, a program that helps make using and citing sources easier and more accurate!

Features of NoodleBib®

- * Format in MLA, APA, and Chicago/Turabian documentation styles
- * Create notecards for each source, highlighting quotes you want to use in your paper
- * Link online sources to your project so you never lose a source again
- * Type and save your papers in Google Docs

The Journal of American Librarianship notes that "NoodleBib's error rate was less than that of the widely used and supported EndNote."

How to use NoodleBib®

1. Go to Noodletools.com and click “Current Users: Sign In.” If you are on a Writing Center Computer, the link is saved under “Favorites.”
2. Click “Create a Personal ID.”
3. Select “An account linked to a school/library subscription or trial.”
4. Click “Register.”
5. You will be asked to enter the school username and password.

School/Library Username: WCmtsac

School/Library Password: password

6. Enter your information and click “Register.”
7. You’re now in!

*Please see a Writing Center tutor your first time using NoodleBib®!