

Captioning Resources

Automatic Sync Technologies uses what they call CaptionSync. They have been used by Broadcast Services and the cost is approximately $2.70 per minute. Other companies range up to $5.00 per minute. You would submit the video to them with a transcript or they will develop the transcript for an additional fee. They can be contacted at 1-888-AST-SYNC; www.automaticsync.com/captionsync.

Another company which has been used primarily for in-class captioning is QuickCaption. They also will provide captioning for audiovisual media. The website is at quickcaption.com. The owner is Antha Ward and she can be reached at: 951-779-0797 or award@quickcaption.com. They are located in Riverside.

The following is a list of other captioning service vendors that have passed an evaluation by the Captioned Media Program (DCMP). The DCMP evaluation is a comprehensive test of a vendor's ability to caption correctly, as per DCMP guidelines listed in the Captioning Key for Educational Media (no experience with these companies but they are approved by the National Association of the Deaf):
