

JOHN BURTON
Advocates
for Youth

Promising Partnerships:

Supporting College Student Success Through Collaboration Between Basic Needs and Financial Aid Offices

MARCH 2023

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Authored by Laura Szabo-Kubitz with support from Debbie Raucher, this report is intended to be a resource for institutions of higher education across California—and nationally—that seek to enhance collaboration between basic needs and financial aid offices to best serve students. The authors would like to thank the representatives of California State University San Marcos; Glendale Community College; Long Beach City College; Los Angeles Pierce College; Mt. San Antonio College; Stanislaus State; University of California, Berkeley; University of California, Irvine; University of California, San Francisco; University of California, Santa Barbara; and the three public higher education system offices who shared the promising practices they employ to support students, as well as the many higher education experts who took the time to review this report and provide feedback. The perspectives presented in this report represent those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of the contributors and reviewers.A

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	4
Background	4
Statewide and Systemwide Efforts	6
Promising Practices	8
Ensure System and Campus Leaders Are Proactively Fostering a Collaborative and Student-Centered CultureA	8
Convene a Joint Committee Across the College That Meets Regularly to Identify Solutions and Maximize Resources	12
Identify a Designated Liaison to Work Collaboratively With Basic Needs and Financial Aid Offices	14
Leverage Data Systems to Maximize Resource Access	14
Provide Regular Opportunities for Cross-Training and Communication	16
Strengthen Coordination Between Basic Needs and Financial Aid Offices to Ensure Students Receive All Benefits for Which They Are EligibleA	18
Getting Down to Business	19
7 Maximize Access to Financial Aid	20
a Ensure Students Receive All Financial Aid for Which They Are Eligible	20
b Make Use of Options to Exercise Professional Judgment and Grant Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeals	21
c Actively Utilize Cost of Attendance Budget Adjustments to Accurately Reflect Students' Expenses	24
d Minimize the Verification Burden on Students	26
8 House Basic Needs and Financial Aid Offices Within the Same DivisionA	27
9 Hire Staff With Backgrounds in Student Services/Affairs and Social WorkA	28
Conclusion	28
Appendix: California Institutions of Higher Education Featured in Report	29
Endnotes	30