Flex Day Fall 2021 Session 2: Student Misconduct Reporting Through a Restorative Justice Lens	Colleges across the nation are facing increased concerns of student behaviors, especially in the online environment. Possessing a foundational understanding of the policies, procedures, and processes of reporting student misconduct is critical for supporting a positive academic environment, maintaining a civil college community, and nurturing restorative justice practices that recognize the different narratives and experiences of our students. This workshop will provide an overview of the Board Policies and Administrative Procedures relevant to the student Standards of Conduct, resource information for reporting, insights into the conduct adjudication process, and best practices for restoring justice for both the faculty and student.AC. Reasonable accommodations, including Sign Language Interpreters, can be provided upon request with 10 days advance notice. For Zoom Meetings, Otter A.I. has been enabled. If you would like to request a live interpreter, please submit a ASL Interpreter Request Form.	08/20/2021 01:00 PM	60	Online	46 Completers
Fall 2022 Flex Day Session 1: Viewing Academic Freedom with a DEISA Lens	The pursuit of diversity, equity, inclusion, social justice, and anti-racism (DEISA) in our classrooms is bringing DEISA into the faculty contract. Due to potential changes in our contract, faculty members have raised concerns that DEISA may affect academic freedom. Using questions posed by faculty, the Faculty Association and Human Resources will demonstrate that these two core principles can co-exist. Faculty can pursue DEISA while upholding academic freedom. Reasonable accommodations, including Sign Language Interpreters, can be provided upon request with 10 days advance notice. For Zoom Meetings, participants may request the Host to enable the Live Transcript feature.
