Thanks to the Faculty Center for Learning Technology, the Language Learning Center is offering hands-on, face-to-face training for the whole campus April 13 and 14. Please read through the descriptions below and think about trying something new or becoming better acquainted with a program. Our goal is to help faculty increase meaningful discussions, interaction with media and text, and build community. Questions can be sent to Peggy Marcy at langlab@mtsac.edu. Thanks.

LLC Tech Week 2023

for Faculty and Staff

Face-to-Face On-Campus Training

Location: Bldg. 77 rm 1005

Dates: Apr. 13 & 14

Register on the POD Portal Calendar

Thursday, April 13

Media Discussions with Flip (formerly FlipGrid)  Flip
2:30 – 3:30 pm (repeats Friday) Register for Flip

Facilitator: Eva Figueroa

Description: Revive your Canvas course discussions using Flip, formerly FlipGrid, a video- and voice-based discussion platform! With Flip, you and your students can post to a discussion using either video or a voice-only recording; additional features include editable auto-captions, screensharing ability, backgrounds and filters, a music library, and more. Attend this session to learn how to integrate Flip into a Canvas course, set-up a Flip discussion, participate in a Flip discussion, and find support information.

Interactives with PlayPosit

3:45 – 4:45 pm (repeats Friday) Register for PlayPosit

Facilitator: Michelle Newhart

Description: Do you want to engage students with videos, but wonder how you can ensure students are accessing and watching the content? This workshop will introduce you to getting started with PlayPosit, a free tool that uses various types of media content to create interactive summative assessments, such as quizzes and discussions, as well as formative schema-building and reflection activities.

Friday, April 14

Community-Building with Pronto

11:30 – 12:30 pm Register for Pronto

Facilitator: Hugo Aguilera

Description: Pronto is a chat-based application/platform that gives you another way to both interact with your students and develop a sense of community in the online environment. This session will introduce you to the basic uses of Pronto as well as introduce the ways in which Pronto can bring your online engagement game up to the next level.

Annotations with Perusall

12:45 – 1:45 pm Register for Perusall

Facilitator: Katie Datko

Description: Concerned that students are not doing or engaging in your readings? Do you want an online alternative to discussions that allows students to critically analyze their course content? This workshop will introduce you to a free annotation tool, Perusall, that encourages social interaction and social reading of specific course content. The pedagogical underpinnings and best practices to create active and social readers as well as practical examples will also be explored.

All workshops can be registered for through the POD Portal Calendar.
