Special Note to the Parents and Minor Students Attending Mt. SAC

It is imperative that parents and minors understand that as students they are entering a college environment, and that carries with its certain possible scenarios, not all of which can be anticipated. The average age of the Mt. SAC student has increased and the student body has become increasingly diverse in all respects. Thus, the atmosphere of classes will frequently reflect this diverse adult population. Some of the circumstances noted below are not different from the high school setting, while others are significantly differently. These precautions are not meant to create undue concern for parents or the minor student, only to serve as an advisory to allow you to manage your particular situation so the minor will have a positive educational experience at Mt. San Antonio College.

Parents MUST read and initial each statement:

	All college coursework and grades become a permanent part of the student's official college academic history and transcript. Poor grades have a far-reaching effect on future entrance to the college or university of choice, scholarships, financial aid, awards, etc.
	Students must abide by the Student Code of Conduct and are subject to the Student Disciplinary Policy. Copies are available in Student Life, Building 9C. All disciplinary incidents become a part of the student's personal history.
	Students are expected to meet all deadlines, classes must be dropped within the deadlines, grade options selected, assignments turned in on time, etc.
	Attendance is required, but not monitored as it is in secondary school systems. Most likely, no one will call if a student is absent.
	Instructors cannot inform parents when classes are cancelled at the last minute or when the class ends early.
	Instructors cannot supervise a minor while they wait to be picked up.
	Courses may include frank discussions on sensitive topics.
	Audio-visual presentations may be graphic in their content.
	Students may be exposed to vulgar language outside of the classroom.
	Students may access pregnancy testing, HIV testing and condoms through the Health Center.
	Group work or class presentations may be expected in class. If required, these activities will be required of all students, regardless of age.
	If an instructor feels the material is not appropriate for a minor, they may ask the student to withdraw.
	Students enrolled through the Special Admit Program are not subject to the enrollment fee but are expected to assume the costs of textbooks or other instructional materials and supplies.
