Management Professional Development Committee

Purpose

The Management Professional Development Committee (MPDC) serves as an operational committee guided by the Management Steering Team in the development of professional learning activities related to management.

Function

1. To recommend to Professional Development Council (PDC) professional learning goals and objectives for management development in alignment with Management Steering and College goals.
2. To advise on all matters related to management professional learning.
3. To review and approve tuition and 529 reimbursement requests for management.
4. To develop and facilitate management focused professional development, including the annual retreat, new manager onboarding, and management monthly professional development meetings.

Membership

All members are selected by the Management Steering Team. Each member, unless otherwise noted, will serve a 2-year term that follows the academic calendar. The Chair of the Committee will be elected by the Committee. In the case when there is no volunteer from the specific areas, the position will not go vacant but may be filled with someone from a different area.
