Classroom / Lab Technology

The IT department staff in collaboration with staff from local academic divisions and departments support and maintain the technology on the campus in:

Fourteen (14) disciple specific open computer labs on the Mt. SAC campus:

- Accessible Technology Center
- Adult basic Education
- Business Division Computer Lab
- Design Lab
- Language Learning Center
- ASCA Computer Lab
- Library
- Math Activities Resource Center and Support
- Natural Science
- Speed and Sign Success Center
- STEM Center
- Tech Ed Resource Center
- Writing Center
- WIN Program

Computer labs are equipment with desktop computers and/or laptops (either HP or iMac or both) and printing.

Approximately 230 lecture classrooms

- Single HP desktop computer or Apple iMac computer workstation
- Audio/visual system with projector and sound

Approximately 63 computer classrooms:

- Between 10 to 40 student computer workstations (either HP desktop or laptop systems or Apple iMac desktop or MacBook laptop systems. System types depend upon the disciple and subject requirements of the courses being taught)
- Single HP desktop computer or Apple iMac Instructor computer workstation
- Audio/visual system with projector and sound