

Irish Rose Farm

a small farm with a big heart

1849 Royal Oaks Dr., Bradbury, CA., 91008. Ph. (626) 358-9234 irishrosefarm.com

Debbie Opp and Norman Day (husband and wife) have owned and operated Irish Rose Farm since 1989. When Debbie was a teen, she won numerous Hunter/Jumper events on her horse Irish, even winning the Los Angeles Co. Championship in Green Working Hunter! She later started her own boarding stable in the back yard of the family home in Pasadena. Being Self employed at Irish Rose Farm (IRF), she was able to work closely with veterinarians and farriers to achieve the best outcome for each and every horse that stayed with her. Because of that, her experience is quite extensive.

Irish Rose Farm provides: horse back riding lessons, horse training, lay up, layover, foaling, aquatred therapy, quarantine, box stalls, 24'x24' welded wire covered paddocks, 12'x24' pipe covered stalls, lighted arena/pasture with jumps available, roundpen, personalized service such as fly mask or blanketing, or supplements, etc.

With 25 plus years handling, training, treating horses, know that your horse is in good hands!!

Irish Rose Farm also provides horse transportation to a wide variety of clients and 24/7 emergency vanning to hospitals. Irish Rose Farm observes best management practices including manure, plastic and mulch composting and water recycling.
