

First Peoples Native Center

Presents:

Native American & Indigenous Heritage Month Opening Ceremony

Wednesday
November 6, 2024
12pm
Multicultural Center
Building 410

Join us in an Opening Ceremony as Tahnabah Whipple, a professional dancer, powwow dancer, model, actress, and makeup artist, leads us in a sacred dance for Native American & Indigenous Heritage Month. Tahnabah is Navajo, Oglala Lakota, and Santee Dakota. Her clans are Táchii'nii, Tábaqhá, Biji Bitoodnii and Oglala; from St. Michael's, Arizona and Pine Ridge, South Dakota. She has strong experience in ballet, lyrical, hip hop, fancy shawl, jingle dress, hoop dance, eagle dance, and the Navajo basket dance. Tahnabah has also performed as a scare actor at Knott's Scary Farm and appeared in Netflix's film, Rez Ball.

FIRST PEOPLES
NATIVE CENTER
@ MTSAC

To request disability related accommodations, please contact Equity Center equitycenter@mtsac.edu at least 5 business days in advance of the event.