

The English, Literature, and Creative Writing (ELCW)
Dept, in partnership with Equity Center, present:

Teaching is my Jam!

AN EVENING WITH ENGLISH PROFESSORS FROM CPP

THURSDAY 10/17

Multicultural Center (Bldg. 410-2030)

FREE DINNER!!

- 4:00-5:00 pm | Session 1
- 5:00-6:00 pm | Pizza Dinner
- 6:00-7:00 pm | Session 2

Session 1:

Albie Miranda

Alberta M. Miranda is a professor in the English and Modern Language department at Cal Poly Pomona. Alberta, or Albie, earned her MA at Cal Poly, where she specialized in rhetorical composition and Early Modern British literature.

Session 2:

Alison Baker

Alison Baker holds an MA in Historical Linguistics and a PhD in Middle English Literature and Language. She has been talking about cool stories with cool people for 29 years. A specialist in medieval English literature, she also teaches classical myth, folklore, and medieval European lit.

equitycenter
Mt. San Antonio College

To request disability related accommodations, please contact Equity Center at equitycenter@mtsac.edu at least 5 business days in advance of the event.