

SPOT Recertification	The document shared in the One Drive was discussed. The DLC made the following recommendations for revision: clarify point of regulations update; emphasize that training can be free of charge; include integrated software as training topic; add pedagogy to description of REC; clarify meaning of “positive attendance” (phrase was changed after discussion). The revised document was approved to be sent for review at C&I. IB9, IIIA14
REC Task Force Update	The REC task force met March 27 and April 5 via Zoom. We have agreed on criteria that comprise REC and will begin working on a rubric. IB9
Vericite	Vericite was bought by Turnitin and will not be available in Canvas after the end of June. The CVC-OEI will not be purchasing plagiarism detection software for community colleges. It is up to local districts to choose, purchase, and integrate their own. The FCLT is looking at three options. They are hoping to pilot a new program over the summer. IIIC
CVC-OEI	The Dean of Library and Learning Resources and the DL Coordinators are reaching out to interested CTE programs to see if they would like to participate. IIA, IIC, IIIC
