BP 4400 Community Services Programs

Reference:

Education Code Section 78300

The College shall maintain a community services program that may include courses in civic, vocational, literacy, health, family and consumer sciences, technical and general education as well as classes in the fields of music, drama, art, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports and athletics.

The community services program shall be designed to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled in it.

Community services courses shall be open for admission of adults and of minors who can benefit from the programs.

No General Fund monies may be expended to establish or maintain community services courses. Students involved in community services courses shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining the courses. Courses may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.
