Annual Notice of Mt. San Antonio Community College District's Policies and Procedures for Providing an Academic and Work Environment Free of Unlawful Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation

I. POLICY STATEMENT

The Mt. San Antonio Community College District (the District) is committed to providing an academic and work environment free of unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. The District hereby reaffirms its commitment to creating and maintaining an academic and working environment free of all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

You are reminded that the District does not condone and will not tolerate any form of unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation of and/or by its members. This notification defines unlawful discrimination, harassment (including sexual harassment) and retaliation on campus and identifies the District's Policies and Procedures which set forth a procedure for the investigation and resolution of complaints by or against any employee, student, or third party within the District.

II. DEFINITIONS

Unlawful Discrimination: The denial of benefits or admission to the District or to any of its programs or activities, either academic or nonacademic, curricular or extracurricular, based on perceived or actual race, religion, religious creed, color, national origin, ethnic group identification, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, sex, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), age, sexual orientation, or any other protected characteristic of any person, or based on the individual's association with a person or group with one or more on these actual or perceived characteristics is illegal and violates District policy.

Unlawful Harassment (Other Than Sexual Harassment): Verbal or physical conduct which has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive academic or work environment or has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance that disparages or shows hostility or aversion toward any student or employee based on perceived or actual race, religion, religious creed, color, national origin, ethnic group identification, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, sex, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), age, sexual orientation, or any other protected characteristic of any person, or based on the individual's association with a person or group with one or more on these actual or perceived characteristics is illegal and violates District policy.

The law also protects employees from discrimination and harassment based on medical condition, marital status, pregnancy, military or veteran status, and genetic information. Gender-based harassment does not necessarily involve conduct that is sexual. Any hostile or offensive conduct based on gender can constitute prohibited harassment. For example, repeated mocking comments about a person's competency to do their job, when based on that person's gender, could constitute gender-based harassment.

Harassment comes in many forms, including but not limited to the following conduct:

Verbal: Inappropriate or offensive remarks, slurs, jokes or innuendoes based on a person's race, gender, sexual orientation, or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, inappropriate comments regarding an individual's body, physical appearance, attire, sexual prowess, marital status or sexual orientation; unwelcome flirting or propositions; demands for sexual favors; verbal abuse, threats or intimidation; or sexist, patronizing or ridiculing statements that convey derogatory attitudes based on gender, race, sexual orientation or other protected status.

Physical: Inappropriate or offensive touching, assault, or physical interference with free movement. This may include, but is not limited to, kissing, patting, lingering or intimate touches, grabbing, pinching, leering, staring, unnecessarily brushing against or blocking another person, whistling or sexual gestures. It also includes any physical assault or intimidation directed at an individual due to that person's gender, race, national origin, sexual orientation or other protected status.

Visual or Written: The display or circulation of visual or written material that degrades an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, posters, cartoons, drawings, graffiti, reading materials, computer graphics or electronic media transmissions (including postings on social media)

Environmental: A hostile academic or work environment exists where it is permeated by insults or abusive comments directed at an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation or other protected status; or gratuitous comments regarding gender, race, sexual orientation, or other protected status that are not germane to the subject matter of the class or activities on the job. A hostile environment can arise from an unwarranted focus on, or stereotyping of, particular racial or ethnic groups, sexual orientations, genders or other protected statuses. An environment may also be hostile toward anyone who merely witnesses unlawful harassment in his/her immediate surroundings, although the conduct is directed at others. The determination of whether an environment is hostile is based on the totality of circumstances, including such factors as the frequency of conduct, the severity of the conduct, whether the conduct is humiliating or physically threatening, and whether the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's learning or work.

Sexual Harassment (a form of unlawful harassment): Sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, physical touching, sexual comments of a provocative or suggestive nature, suggestive looks or gestures, sexually explicit jokes, electronic media/communication, printed materials or innuendos intended for and directed to another, and other conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to the conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual's employment, academic status or progress;

- Submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as a basis of employment or academic decisions affecting the individual;
- the conduct has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or educational environment; or
- submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting the individual regarding benefits and services, honors, programs, or activities available through the District.

This definition encompasses two kinds of sexual harassment:

“Quid pro quo” sexual harassment occurs when a person in a position of authority makes educational or employment benefits conditional upon an individual's willingness to engage in or tolerate unwanted sexual conduct.

“Hostile environment” sexual harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct based on a person's gender is sufficiently severe or pervasive so as to alter the conditions of an individual's learning or work environment, unreasonably interfere with an individual's academic or work performance, or create an intimidating, hostile or abusive learning or work environment. The victim must subjectively perceive the environment as hostile, and the harassment must be such that a reasonable person of the same gender would perceive the environment as hostile.

Sexually harassing conduct can occur between persons of the same or different genders. The standard for determining whether conduct constitutes sexual harassment is whether a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim would perceive the conduct as harassment based on sex.

Unlawful Retaliation

It is unlawful to fire, demote, harass, or otherwise retaliate against applicants, employees for the following reasons:

- filing a charge of discrimination;
- complaining to the District or outside Governmental entity about discrimination or harassment in the academic or work environment;
- participation in a discrimination, harassment proceeding such as an investigation or lawsuit.

The law forbids retaliation when it comes to any aspect of employment, including hiring, firing, pay, job assignments, promotions, transfers, layoffs, training, benefits, and any other terms or conditions of employment.

For students unlawful retaliation occurs when any unfavorable action is taken, unfavorable condition created, or other action taken by a student or employee for the purpose of intimidation that is directed toward a student because the student initiated an allegation or complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment or participated in an investigation of alleged unlawful conduct.

An individual is protected by law from retaliation whether his or her charges are substantiated. This is to preserve and protect the rights of affected individuals, and to encourage reporting of alleged discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

The College is committed to providing an academic and work environment that respects the dignity of individuals and groups. The College shall be free of sexual harassment and all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation including acts of sexual violence. It shall also be free of other unlawful harassment including that which is based on any of the following statuses: race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, mental condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, or sexual orientation, military status, or veteran status of any person, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics.

Any student or employee who believes that he or she has been harassed or retaliated against in violation of this policy should immediately report such incidents by following the procedures delineated in the Administrative ~~Regulations~~ and Procedures. Supervisors are mandated to report all incidents of harassment and retaliation that come to their attention.

Therefore, the College also strictly prohibits retaliation against any individual for filing a complaint of harassment or for participating in a harassment investigation. Such conduct is illegal and constitutes a violation of this policy. All allegations of retaliation will be swiftly and thoroughly investigated. If the College determines that retaliation has occurred, it will take all reasonable steps within its power to stop such conduct. Individuals who engage in retaliatory conduct are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion.

This policy applies to all aspects of the academic environment including, but not limited to, classroom conditions, grades, academic standing, employment opportunities, scholarships, recommendations, disciplinary actions, and participation in any community college activity. In addition, this policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment including, but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, disciplinary action, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, training opportunities, and compensation.

The College President/CEO shall establish procedures that define harassment on campus. The College President/CEO shall further establish procedures for employees, students, and other members of the campus community that provide for the investigation and resolution of complaints regarding harassment and discrimination, and procedures for students to resolve complaints of harassment and discrimination. All participants are protected from retaliatory acts by the College, its employees, students, and agents.

This policy and related written procedures including the procedure for making complaints shall be widely published and publicized to administrators, faculty, staff, and students, particularly when they are new to the institution. They shall be available for students and employees in all administrative offices.

The College is committed to providing an academic and work environment free of unlawful harassment. This procedure defines sexual harassment and other forms of harassment on campus and sets forth a procedure for the investigation and resolution of complaints of harassment by or against any staff or faculty member or student within the College.

Definitions

General Harassment: Harassment based on race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, military status, or veteran status of any person, or the perception that a person has one or more of these characteristics, is illegal and violates College policy. Gender-based harassment does not necessarily involve conduct that is sexual. Any hostile or offensive conduct based on gender can constitute prohibited harassment.

Harassment comes in many forms, including but not limited to, the following conduct:

Verbal: Inappropriate or offensive remarks, slurs, jokes, or innuendoes based on a person's race, gender, sexual orientation, or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, inappropriate comments regarding an individual's body, physical appearance, attire, marital status, or sexual orientation; unwelcome flirting or propositions; demands for sexual favors; verbal abuse, threats, or intimidation; or sexist, patronizing, or ridiculing statements that convey derogatory attitudes based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, disability, or other protected status.

Physical: Inappropriate or offensive touching, assault, or physical interference with free movement. This may include, but is not limited to, kissing, patting, lingering, or intimate touches; grabbing, pinching, leering, staring, unnecessarily brushing against; or blocking another person; whistling or sexual gestures. It also includes any physical assault or intimidation directed at an individual due to that person's gender, race, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, or other protected status.

Visual or Written: The display or circulation of visual or written material that degrades an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, disability, or other protected status. This may include, but is not limited to, posters, cartoons, drawings, graffiti, reading materials, computer graphics, or electronic media transmissions.

Environmental: A hostile academic or work environment exists where it is permeated by sexual innuendo; insults or abusive comments directed at an individual or group based on gender, race, nationality, sexual orientation, disability, or other protected status; or gratuitous comments regarding gender, race, sexual orientation, disability, or other protected status that are not relevant to the subject matter of the class or activities on the job. A hostile environment can arise from an unwarranted focus on sexual topics or sexually suggestive statements in the classroom or work environment. It can also be created by an unwarranted focus on, or stereotyping of, particular racial or ethnic groups, sexual orientations, genders, disabilities, or other protected statuses. An environment may also be hostile toward anyone who merely witnesses unlawful harassment in his or her immediate surroundings, although the conduct is directed at others. A final scenario for a hostile work environment is one in which behaviors are directed at specific individuals for the purpose of aggressively humiliating, belittling, and/or ridiculing them. The determination of whether an environment is hostile is based on the totality of the circumstances including such factors as the frequency of the conduct, the severity of the conduct, whether the conduct is humiliating or physically threatening, and whether the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's learning or work.

Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other conduct of a sexual nature when:

- submission to the conduct is made a term or condition of an individual's employment, academic status, or progress;
- submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as a basis of employment or academic decisions affecting the individual;
- the conduct has the purpose or effect of having a negative impact upon the individual's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or educational environment; or
- submission to, or rejection of, the conduct by the individual is used as the basis for any decision affecting the individual regarding working conditions, employment or enrollment status, benefits and services, or activities available at or through the community college.

This definition encompasses two kinds of sexual harassment:

"Quid pro quo" sexual harassment occurs when a person in a position of authority makes educational or employment benefits conditional upon an individual's willingness to engage in or tolerate unwanted sexual conduct.

"Hostile environment" sexual harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct, based on a person's gender or specific attributes, is sufficiently severe or pervasive so as to alter the conditions of an individual's learning or work environment; unreasonably interfere with an individual's academic or work performance; or create an intimidating, hostile, or abusive learning or work environment. The victim must subjectively perceive the environment as hostile, and the harassment must be such that a reasonable person would perceive the environment as hostile.

Sexually harassing conduct can occur between people of the same or different genders. The standard for determining whether conduct constitutes sexual harassment is whether a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim would perceive the conduct as harassment based on sex.

Consensual Relationships

Romantic or sexual relationships between supervisors and employees or between managers, faculty, or staff members and students are discouraged. There is an inherent imbalance of power and potential for exploitation in such relationships. A conflict of interest may arise if the manager, faculty, or staff member must evaluate the student's or employee's work or make decisions affecting the employee or student. The relationship may create an appearance of impropriety and lead to charges of favoritism by other students or employees. A consensual sexual relationship may change, with the result that sexual conduct that was once welcome becomes unwelcome and harassing. In the event that such relationships do occur, the College has the authority to transfer any involved employee to eliminate or attenuate the supervisory authority of one over the other, or of a teacher over a student. Such action by the College is a proactive and preventive measure to avoid possible charges of harassment and does not constitute discipline against any affected employee.

Academic Freedom

To the extent the harassment policies and procedures are in conflict with the College's policy on academic freedom, the harassment policies and procedures shall prevail. If the faculty member wishes to use sexually explicit materials in the classroom as a teaching technique, the faculty member must review that use with the Department Chairperson and Division Dean who may consult with the Human Resources Office to determine whether or not this violates the sexual harassment policy.

Sexual Harassment Training

By January 1, 2006, Mt. San Antonio College shall provide at least two hours of classroom or other effective interactive training and education regarding sexual harassment to all supervisory employees who are employed as of July 1, 2005. All new supervisory employees must be provided with the training and education within six months of their assumption of a supervisory position. After January 1, 2006, Mt. San Antonio College shall provide sexual harassment training and education to each supervisory employee once every two years.

The training and education required by this procedure shall include information and practical guidance regarding the Federal and State statutory provisions concerning the prohibition against and the prevention and correction of sexual harassment and the remedies available to victims of sexual harassment in employment. The training and education shall also include practical examples aimed at instructing supervisors in the prevention of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation and shall be presented by trainers or educators with knowledge and expertise in the prevention of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation.

Training of all staff will be conducted. Training for academic staff should emphasize environmental harassment in the classroom.

In years in which a substantive policy or procedural change has occurred, all College employees will attend a training update and/or receive a copy of the revised policies and procedures.

A training program or informational services will be made available to all students at least once annually. The student training or informational services shall include an explanation of the policy, how it works, and how to file a complaint.

Participants in training programs will be required to sign a statement that they have either understood the policies and procedures, their responsibilities, and their own and the College's potential liability, or that they did not understand the policy and desire further training.

Filing a Timely Complaint

The College strongly encourages employees and students who believe they are being harassed or discriminated against to file a complaint within 30 days of the alleged incident. All supervisors and managers have a mandatory duty to report incidents of harassment and discrimination; the existence of a hostile, offensive or intimidating work environment, and acts of retaliation.

Communicating that the Conduct is Unwelcome

The College further encourages students and staff to let the offending person know immediately and firmly that the conduct or behavior is unwelcome, offensive, in poor taste and/or inappropriate.

Oversight of Complaint Procedure

The Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, is the "responsible College officer" charged with receiving complaints of discrimination or harassment, and coordinating their investigation.

The actual investigation of complaints may be assigned to the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, to other staff or to outside persons or organizations under contract with the College. This shall occur whenever the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, is named in the complaint or implicated by the allegations in the complaint.

Where to File a Complaint

A student or employee who believes he or she has been discriminated against or harassed in violation of the College's policy and procedures may make a complaint orally or in writing, within one year of the date of the alleged harassment or the date on which the complainant knew or should have known of the facts underlying the complaint.

If a complainant decides to file a formal written unlawful discrimination or harassment complaint against the College, he or she must file the complaint on a form prescribed by the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges. These approved forms are available from the Chief Human Resources Officer or his /her designee and at the following URL: www.cccco.edu/divisions/legal/discrimination/discrimination.htm

The completed form must be filed with any of the following:

- the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee;
- (identify others, including the Chief Student Services Officer, the Administrative Services/Risk Management Office (?), and College President/CEO); and/or
- the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges.

- Employee complainants shall be notified that they may file employment discrimination complaints with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) or the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) and complaints filed with the EEOC and/or the DFEH should be forwarded to the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges. Any College employee who receives a harassment complaint shall notify the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, immediately.

Intake and Processing of the Complaint

Upon receiving notification of a harassment or discrimination complaint, the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, shall:

- Undertake efforts to uniformly resolve the charges, including but not limited to mediation, rearrangement of work/academic schedules, obtaining apologies, providing informal counseling and/or training, etc.;
- Advise the complainant that he or she need not participate in an informal resolution of the complaint, as described above, and that he or she may file a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education. The Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, shall also notify the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges of the complaint.
- Authorize the investigation of the complaint, and supervise and/or conduct a thorough, prompt and impartial investigation of the complaint, as set forth below. Where complainants opt for informal resolution, the designated officer will determine whether further investigation is necessary to ensure resolution of the matter and utilize the investigation process outlined below as appropriate. In the case of a formal complaint, the investigation will include interviews with the complainant, the accused, and any other persons who may have relevant knowledge concerning the complaint. This may include victims of similar conduct.
- Review the factual information gathered through the investigation to determine whether the alleged conduct constitutes harassment, or other unlawful discriminatory conduct, giving consideration to all factual information and the totality of the circumstances, including the nature of the verbal, physical, visual or sexual conduct, and the context in which the alleged incidents occurred.
- Set forth the results of the investigation in a written report. The written report shall include a description of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint, a summary of the testimony of each witness, an analysis of any relevant data or other evidence collected during the investigation, a specific finding as to whether discrimination did or did not occur with respect to each allegation in the complaint, and any other appropriate information.

- Provide the complainant and accused with a copy or summary of the investigative report within ninety days from the date the College received the complaint. The complainant and accused shall also be provided with a written notice setting forth the determination of the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, as to whether harassment or other discriminatory conduct did or did not occur with respect to each allegation in the complaint; a description of action taken, if any, to prevent similar problems from occurring in the future; the proposed resolution of the complaint; and notice of the parties' rights to appeal to the College's Board of Trustees and the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges. The results of the investigation and the determination as to whether harassment or other discriminatory conduct occurred shall also be reported to the accused, and the appropriate academic or administrative official(s). Reports to the complainant shall be prepared so as not to violate any applicable privacy rights of the accused.

Investigation of the Complaint

The College shall promptly investigate every complaint of harassment or discrimination. No claim of workplace or academic harassment or discrimination shall remain unexamined. As set forth above, where the complainant opts for an informal resolution, the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, may limit the scope of the investigation as appropriate. The College will keep the investigation confidential to the extent possible, but cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality because release of some information on a "need-to-know-basis" is essential to a thorough investigation.

- Investigation Steps: The College will fairly and objectively investigate harassment and discrimination complaints utilizing the following steps: interviewing the complainant(s); interviewing the accused individual(s); identifying and interviewing witnesses, if any; reminding all individuals interviewed of the College's no-retaliation policy; considering whether any involved person should be removed from the campus pending completion of the investigation; reviewing personnel/academic files of all involved parties; reach a conclusion as to the allegations and any appropriate disciplinary and remedial action; and see that all recommended action is carried out in a timely fashion.
- Timeline for Completion: The College will undertake its investigation promptly and as swiftly as possible. To that end, the investigator shall complete the above steps, and prepare a written report within 90 days of the College receiving the complaint.
- Cooperation Encouraged: All employees are expected to cooperate with a College investigation into allegations of harassment or discrimination. Lack of cooperation impedes the ability of the College to investigate thoroughly and respond effectively. However, lack of cooperation by a complainant or witnesses does not relieve the College of its obligation to investigate. The College will conduct an investigation if it is discovered that harassment is, or may be occurring, with or without the cooperation of the alleged victim(s) and regardless of whether a complaint is filed.

Discipline and Corrective Action

If harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation occurred in violation of the policy or procedure, the College shall take disciplinary action against the accused and any other remedial action it determines to be appropriate. The action will be prompt, effective, and commensurate with the severity of the offense. If discipline is imposed, the nature of the discipline will not be communicated to the complainant.

Disciplinary actions against faculty, staff and students will conform to all relevant statutes, regulations, personnel policies and procedures, including the provisions of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

The College shall also take reasonable steps to protect the complainant from further harassment and/or discrimination and to protect the complainant and witnesses from retaliation as a result of communicating the complaint and/or assisting in the investigation. The College shall take reasonable steps to ensure the confidentiality of the investigation and to protect the privacy of all parties to the extent possible without impeding the College's ability to investigate and respond effectively to the complaint.

Appeals

If the complainant is not satisfied with the results of the administrative determination, he or she may, within 15 days, submit a written appeal to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall review the original complaint, the investigative report, the administrative decision, and the appeal. The Board of Trustees shall issue a final College decision in the matter within 45 days after receiving the appeal. A copy of the decision rendered by the Board of Trustees shall be forwarded to the complainant and to the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges. The complainant shall also be notified of his or her right to appeal this decision.

If the Board of Trustees does not act within 45 days, the administrative determination shall be deemed approved and shall become the final decision of the College in the matter.

The complainant shall have the right to file a written appeal with the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges within 30 days after the Board of Trustees issues the final College decision or permits the administrative decision to become final. Such appeals shall be processed pursuant to the provision of Section 59350 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.

In any case involving employment discrimination, including workplace harassment, the complainant may, at any time before or after the issuance of the final decision of the College, file a complaint with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing. In such cases, the complainant may also file a petition for review with the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges within 30 days after the governing board issues the final decision or permits the administrative decision to become final.
