Institutions Can Rely on Statements Not Subject to Cross-Examination

- August 24, 2021, OCR issued new guidance: will no longer enforce part of 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(6)(i) that prohibits decision-makers from considering statements not subject to cross-examination
- Follows July 28, 2021 U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts' decision holding provision to be arbitrary and capricious
 - Court issued a second order clarifying that it had vacated and remanded the provision and that its ruling applied nationwide

Institutions Can Rely on Statements Not Subject to Cross-Examination

- CCD decision makers can now consider statements even if the parties or witnesses do not submit to cross-examination at the live hearing, including:
- Statements made by the parties and witnesses during the investigation
 - Emails or text messages between the parties
 - Statements in Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) reports, police reports, medical reports and other documents

The Grievance Process – The Hearing

Title IX Training Series Part 3: Hearings and Determination of Responsibility

Mt San Antonio College | September 23, 2021

Presented By: Pilar Morin & Monica Espejo

Hearing

- Opportunity for Parties to appear before a decision maker to respond to the evidence gathered during the investigation
- Neither Party may unilaterally waive the right to a live hearing
 - Can choose whether to participate in the hearing and whether to answer cross-examination questions
 - Parties (except employee-student) can participate in informal resolution
- Must presume Respondent is not responsible for alleged conduct

 LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Case Study -No, Yes, Maybe

The decision-maker is aware that the investigator is very experienced and highly respected. The investigator made recommended findings in her report. Can the decision maker give the investigator and the findings deference in reaching a decision?

 LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Notice of Hearing

- Must provide Parties written notice of date, time, location, participants, and purpose of hearing
 - With sufficient time for Party to prepare

Case Study – Right to Hearing No, Yes, Maybe

After the District provided the Parties notice of the hearing, the employee Respondent contacted the Decision-Maker and stated he accepts responsibility and wants to bypass the hearing in order to expedite the disciplinary decision. Because the Respondent admitted responsibility, can the Decision-Maker issue the determination regarding responsibility without the hearing?

Title IX Training Series Part 3: Hearings and Determination of Responsibility

Mt San Antonio College | September 23, 2021

Presented By: Pilar Morin & Monica Espejo

- Must assign an advisor even if the party is absent at the hearing

 LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Role of Decision-Maker

- Conduct hearing
 - May ask Parties and witnesses questions
- Must objectively evaluate all relevant evidence
 - Including inculpatory and exculpatory evidence
 - No credibility determinations based on status as Complainant, Respondent, or witness
- Must independently reach a determination regarding responsibility
 - Without giving deference to the investigative report

 LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Responsibilities of Decision-Maker

- Must ensure hearing process is impartial, objective, unbiased, neutral, and independent
- Cannot have conflict of interest or bias
 - Must be independent from Title IX Coordinator and Investigator
 - No conflicts of interest with any Party or Advisor
- Can be one person or panel, internal or external

Case Study – Yes, No, Maybe

The Title IX Coordinator attends the hearing to serve as a hearing facilitator. She will assist in bringing witnesses into the room, running the hearing technology, and enforcing decorum rules. Is this a violation of the Title IX regulations?

Case Study – Yes, No, Maybe

The District policies provide for a panel of decisions-makers to reach a determination of responsibility. During the hearing, a panel member turns to the Title IX Coordinator, who is facilitating the hearing, to ask the Title IX Coordinator for her opinion of the relevance of a document. Is this a problem?

LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Case Study – Responsibilities of Decision-Maker

If a Decision-Maker has questions about the grievance process and needs clarification about an issue raised by a Party during the Evidence Review, the Decision-Maker can consult all of the following resources, EXCEPT:

- D. Investigative Report
- E. Panel attorney

LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Format of Hearing

 - Individuals are to avoid making disparaging or acrimonious personal remarks toward any other participant at the hearing.
 - When a question is pending, Advisors will not, through objections or otherwise, coach the person testifying, or suggest answers.

Relevance

- Not defined in regulations
- Evidence having any tendency in reason to prove or disprove any allegation at issue (Cal. Evid. Code CFR § 210)
- Can rely on logic, common sense, experience or science
- Includes both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence

Relevance Considerations

- Does the evidence:
- Indicate bias on the part of a witness
 - Corroborate an allegation
 - Provide evidence that might exonerate accused
 - Provide motive or opportunity
 - Provide witness leads
- Direct v. Circumstantial Evidence

Evidence at Hearing

- Cannot exclude relevant evidence because the evidence may be unduly prejudicial, concern prior or subsequent bad acts, or constitute character evidence
 - Instead: objectively evaluate relevant evidence by analyzing whether evidence warrants a high or low level of weight or credibility

Evidence at Hearing

- Prior or subsequent bad acts may establish:
- motive
 - opportunity,
 - intent, preparation
 - plan
 - knowledge
 - Identity
 - lack of mistake
 - pattern

Evidence at Hearing – Privileged Information

LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Case Study

In the hallway on the way to the hearing, the respondent admits to his wife that he sexually assaulted the complainant. Several people are in the hallway, including the Complainant's advisor, and hear the comments. The Complainant's advisor asks the Respondent about the comments to his wife during cross examination.

Case Study Con't True, False, or Maybe

The comments the Respondent made to his wife in the hall are not admissible because they are privileged confidential marital communications?

Witnesses

 - Includes inculpatory and exculpatory evidence
- Witnesses not required to participate in hearing

 - May conduct direct examination
 - Required to conduct cross examination
 - If party doesn't have Advisor or Advisor fails to appear, district must provide

34 CFR 106.45(b)(6)(i)

Case Study – Problems with Advisor

The District sent the required notice of the hearing to the Parties and their Advisors. The Complainant's advisor is an attorney he hired independently. On the day of the scheduled hearing, the Complainant's Attorney Advisor failed to appear. Neither the Complainant nor the Decision-Maker can get in contact with the Advisor. What should the Decision-Maker do?

Case Study – Problems with Advisor

The Decision-Maker should:

- A. Postpone the hearing
- B. Appoint a new Advisor so the hearing can proceed as scheduled
- C. Allow the Party to represent himself
- D. A or B
- E. None of the above

Decision-Maker Hearing Preparation

1. Review

 - What question gets you this information?
 - Which witness has this information?

Decision-Maker Hearing Preparation

 - Clarify purpose and logistics of hearing
 - Establish allegations and evidence that will be considered
 - Review rights and responsibilities of Parties & Advisors
 - Confirm attendance and whether accommodations are needed
- No Ex Parte Communications: Decision-Makers should not meet or communicate with parties separately

Decision-Maker Hearing Preparation

- Dedicate time for preparation
- Dress professionally
- Arrive early and prepared
- Bring note-taking materials
- Dedicate time to preparing determination regarding responsibility

Conducting the Hearing – Cross Examination

- Cannot require prior submission of written questions
- Decision-Maker must explain and should document why an answer to question was excluded as irrelevant
- If a Party or witness disagrees on relevance ruling they have a choice to:
 - Abide by Decision-Maker's determination and answer question;
 - or
 - Refuse to answer question deemed relevant

Rape Shield

- Questions or evidence of Complainant's sexual behavior are irrelevant unless
 - offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged or
 - concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent. 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(6)(ii).
- If consent not at issue, all questions/evidence about Complainant's sexual behavior are irrelevant

Refusal to Participate or Answer

- Decision-Maker cannot draw inference based solely on Party's or witness's absence or refusal to answer question
- But can rely on his/her/their previous previously provided statement

Case Study

The Respondent will be present at the hearing, but will not testify as he is asserting his right against self incrimination. However,, the complainant will testify about text messages he sent her saying “sorry” for forcing her to do something she did not want to do, and stating he had been drunk when it happened. Must the Decision-Maker exclude the statements in the text if the Respondent is not subject to cross examination?

LIEBERT CASSIDY WHITMORE

Decision-Maker Questioning

- Eliminate missing information
- Use open-ended questions
- Don't ask compound questions
- Don't suggest an answer in question
- Listen carefully
- Clarify unclear terms or slang

- While preamble says not required do include what is necessary to support the findings

Weighing Credibility

- Decision-Maker decides degree to which inaccuracy, inconsistency, or implausibility in Party's/witness's response affects determination

Group Practice - Appeals

The new District appointed advisor asked questions and represented me but I don't think the advisor represented me very well, which contributed to the Decision-Maker finding that I was responsible for the alleged conduct.
