Get your pass and start exploring now!

Bus

Foothill Transit offers bus service between Downtown Los Angeles and southwest San Bernardino County. To ride, you can purchase a one-time pass or reloadable TAP card online or at any transit site. Don't forget to check for student discounts!

Please visit Foothill Transit for more information on routes, schedules and fares, as well as a handy Trip Planner.

Metro

Metro is the main public transportation system for Los Angeles County. It plans and runs buses and trains in the area. Metro also offers light rail, bus, and vanpool services to help people travel around the county. See Metro.net for additional information on Metro schedules and fares.

Metro Micro

Metro Micro is a ride service that works like a shared Uber or Lyft. They offer trips within several "service zones" in LA County. It is a fast, safe, and low-cost option for short trips around town. For additional information on Metro Micro schedules and fares please visit their website.

Metrolink

The Metrolink offers direct train service to Los Angeles and other southern California communities. See Metrolinktrains.com for information on schedules and fares. Metro and Metrolink are different transit systems, but both accept the TAP card. You can purchase a one-time pass or reloadable TAP card online or at transit terminals. Be sure to check for student discounts!

Amtrak Train

Amtrak has several routes connecting Southern California to other parts of the country! The closest station is the Pomona Amtrak Station (100 West Commercial Street, Pomona, CA 91768). Visit Amtrak's California Routes page for route information and fares.
