

Legacy Leadership Traits

Mt. San Antonio College Students make a significant impact on their communities by demonstrating exemplary leadership skills, such as responsibility, inclusion, advocacy, and engagement.

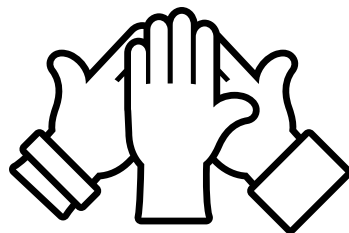

Responsibility

- Follows through on their commitments
- Holds themselves and others accountable
- Takes on a leadership role in teams, projects, assignments, etc

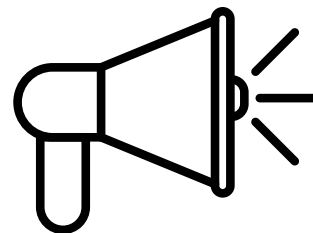

Inclusion

- Mindful communication: Listens and seeks to understand others point of views and ideas
- Challenges stereotypes and avoids assumptions
- Is proactive in educating themselves on different topics: Critical Race Theories, Gender and Women's Studies, etc

Advocacy

- Participates in student demonstrations
- Strives to influence change within the institution
- Sits on College-Wide Committees
- Helps create new programs to meet student needs
- Writes resolutions
- Meets with administrators to advocate for change

Engagement

- Being involved in various clubs/organizations on or off campus
- Being an active member of the campus community
- Demonstrating a level of investment in their learning
- Demonstrating a positive relationship with peers & faculty/staff

