WHICH BOOK WILL BE THE CHAMPION?

In preparation for Banned Books Week, the Mt. SAC Library invites you to vote in our tournament of banned books!

The tournament includes four rounds and starts with 16 books that have been frequently challenged or banned.

Vote for the book that you prefer in each bracket. Prefer Beloved to Thirteen Reasons Why? Vote for it! How about 1984 over Harry Potter? Vote for it! Then visit us the following week to see which books made it through to the next round.

There are four rounds/weeks of voting starting on August 29th. The final voting round takes place during Banned Books Week and the champion will be announced the week of September 25th.

Want to see the eight books on the other side of the bracket? Want to vote? Yes! Please visit the library tournament of banned books voting area (south of the Information Desk) or the online voting form at <https://tinyurl.com/4nxsjk4h> (or scan the QR code).

"Banned Books Week is an annual event celebrating the freedom to read."

Typically held during in September, it highlights the value of free and open access to information. By focusing on efforts across the country to remove or restrict access to books, Banned Books Week draws national attention to the harms of censorship." - American Library Association
