

Group Study Rooms

---

Welcome to the Mt. SAC Library Study Rooms!

Please help us keep the rooms clean and conducive to learning for everyone.

RESERVATIONS

Make an online reservation to be sure your group has a room when you need:

<http://mtsac.libcal.com/booking/studyrooms>.

If there is an open room your group is welcome to use it until someone with a reservation shows up. Rooms are for groups of 2-8 Mt. SAC students (we are unable to accommodate larger groups).

LIMITS ON FOOD IN GROUP STUDY ROOMS

<https://giphy.com/gifs/pizza-mouse-rat>

Unfortunately, smelly or noisy food may distract other students and food in the Library attracts rodents and bugs who enjoy your crumbs and trash. Learning is our priority in the Library, so food must be limited to small, neatly eaten snacks. Yes, this means no food delivery to the library. If we can smell, hear, feel, or see something left behind please choose something different to fuel your studies in the Library. We invite you to enjoy your sticky, greasy, messy, fragrant, crunchy food outside the library. Please don't forget to throw your trash away.

! your crumbs and trash!

VOICES CARRY

The study rooms are not sound proofed—voices and other noise carry in the Library. The Library supports active learning and understands that your studies can get exciting! Please keep your voices at a quieter conversational level. We are happy to give you a reminder- but if two reminders are required you may have to take your noisier interactions out of the Library.

<https://memegenerator.net/instance/57798117/dawsons-creek-why-are-you-talking-so-loud>

APPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR

Just like anywhere on campus, students in the Library are expected to follow the Mt. SAC Standards of Conduct policy. <http://www.mtsac.edu/studentlife/standardsofconduct.html>

Unfortunately thefts do happen- even in the Library! Please be careful with your stuff.