Section 2: Sentence Answer and Translation

Instructions: Take turns translating and then answering these questions in the target language. When it asks to translate, please write in ASL syntax (word order). Practice asking and answering in ASL.

1. What days do you go to class?

2. Do you need a backpack?

3. What do you need for history class?

4. Do you already have a calculator?

5. Are you going to buy a notebook?

Section 3: Classroom Items

Instructions: Use your textbook and your partner's help to sign as many items in this classroom as you can.

Using the 5 Parameters of ASL, write below the words you are signing to each other.

Section 4: Dialogue Creation

Instructions: Imagine that tomorrow is the first day of school and you and your partner need some new supplies. You may ask your partner what they need and point out the items they already have. Write questions you will ask your partner in the target language (ASL word order). Then write your partner's answers in the target language. If you don't know a sign, look it up online. Attach a piece of notebook paper if you need more space. Practice asking and answering.
