MAR 01

Cost of Community College: Time and Money

Understand the costs of being a student in terms of time and money. Learn how to budget these resources to maximize your success this semester and beyond.

The April 15 tax deadline is just around the corner. Join Mt. SAC Accounting Professor and CPA, Steven Valdes, to get your tax questions answered. In addition, learn the details of the recently passed American Rescue Act and the impact it may have on your taxes.

MAR 15

Tackling Taxes

MAR 17

Setting Goals for My Money

Goals give us a sense of meaning and purpose, but managing money can give us headaches and stress. This webinar will help you take control of your financial life by identifying, prioritizing, and implementing your financial goals.

No one is ever fully prepared when catastrophe strikes. Many people have discovered this during the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic. This workshop will help you learn tools to help you gain control and feel empowered during a financial emergency.

MAR 22

Building Financial Stability in Uncertain Times

MAR 30

Using Credit Wisely

While 70% of Americans carry a credit card, many don't fully understand how they work. Join us for a discussion on credit cards, credit scores, and credit reports. You will leave this workshop with tools to effectively manage your credit and improve your credit scores.

Are you planning to transfer to a university? Join our panel of Mt. SAC experts from Counseling, the MMMC, Scholarship, and Transfer Services, for a Q&A session to learn strategies to help you make a smooth transition.

APR 06

Financial Preparation for Transferring to University

APR 07

Raise Your Credit Score

About 37% of U.S. households aren't able to pay off their credit cards in full each month. This workshop will provide you with a roadmap to get you out of debt and raise your credit scores in the process.

We all make mistakes at one point or another when it comes to managing our finances. Sometimes those mistakes come from a lack of options and sometimes they are the result of misinformation. This workshop will identify 20 options to avoid at all costs and provide you with healthier options to do instead.

APR 12

Managing Debt: What NOT to Do

Budgeting is an effective strategy for individuals and families to reach their financial goals, yet only 40% of Americans have a budget. Join us to learn about a variety of budgeting tools to help you move from “paycheck to paycheck” to financial security.

APR 20 Budget Hacks

APR 28 25 Fin Lit Resources

Personal finance information is more useful and more easily understood when it can be applied personally to our lives. There are many useful online tools (quizzes, calculators, information sources, and apps) to help you manage your money. This workshop will highlight 25 useful fin lit resources.

Investing is so much more than savings, which can make it confusing. Join us to learn the basics of investing including risk and return, diversification, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and how to get started investing.

MAY 03 Investing for My Future

MAY 11 Minimalism: Doing More with Less

Minimalism can help you live life with purpose and intention. It is not just about having less things, it is about making the most of what you have. Learn minimalism strategies to help you create more simplicity and intentionality in your life.

Buying a car is a big step, but it doesn't have to be a daunting one. Join us to learn about the car buying process so you are ready to make informed decisions when you purchase your next car.

MAY 19 Car Buying 101

MAY 24 Renting: The Process and Your Rights

There is much more to renting than your monthly rent payment. This workshop will cover tools and strategies for your apartment search, details about the lease agreement document, and your rights as a renter.

Buying a home is the largest purchase most individuals will make in their lifetime. This workshop will cover pros and cons of buying vs. renting; steps in the home-buying process; up-front and monthly costs of buying a home; and resources available to assist you in the process.

JUNE 01 Home Buying 101

JUN 02 Mortgage 101

Learn the basic vocabulary of a mortgage, what legitimate costs are involved, and how to determine if you should refi or not. Loni Nguyen is a former loan officer who is currently a Mt. SAC faculty member. This is not a sales pitch from a current mortgage company seeking your business
