Digital History Project: Living Stories, Lasting Archives

The First Peoples Native Center and the Mt. SAC Library cordially invite you to an immersive experience celebrating the power of student and community activism. Our campus history is one of collective endurance, and this event honors the voices and dedication that helped build the First Peoples Native Center. In partnership with the Library, which has carefully collected and preserved this important history, we invite you to honor our past and look toward our future. Thursday, June 4, | 1:00 PM – 2:30 pm. Founder's Hall (Building 10).

Community Collage

De-stress and join in by getting creative with scissors, glue, and old magazines! 6/3-6/10, during Library open hours. Library Lobby (Bldg. 6).

Grad Selfie Station
