Sustainability at Mt. SAC

The three pillars of sustainability are PEOPLE, PLANET, and PROSPERITY.

Summer is in full swing!

Another semester has come to a close but campus is still buzzing Mounties! This month we highlight the multitude of campus resources that are still available through the summer as well as some wonderful opportunities to take part in building sustainability both on and off campus! We will also spotlight specialized immigration resources. A reminder that all issues are climate issues and diversity and equity are key components of a resilient and sustainable future for all!

For Faculty

LEAF Course

The LEAF Course is an opportunity for Mt. SAC faculty designed to learn how to integrate sustainability principles into their curriculum from various disciplines. Faculty who complete this course will have their courses designated as "Leaf-Course" in the Mt. SAC course schedule and catalog, signifying their commitment to sustainability. It is a 5-week course consisting of synchronous zoom sessions and is very flexible. For more information please contact lgreenberg1@mtsac.edu.

Hello Summer at the Mt. SAC Library

Textbooks, technology loans (laptops or ipads) and even study rooms, all available over the Summer 2025 inter session! Stop by and explore the many resources and support the library has to offer you!

Summer hours:

Monday - Thursday : 7:30am to 9pm

Friday - Sunday : CLOSED

A colorful poster for the Mt. SAC Library's summer offerings. The background is divided into three large triangular sections: teal at the top, pink on the left, and yellow on the right. At the top left, the words "Hello Summer" are written in a large, bubbly, 3D-style font. To the right of this is the Mt. SAC Library logo, which features a stylized mountain range and the text "MT. SAN ANTONIO COLLEGE LIBRARY". Below the logo, the website "mtsac.edu/library" and phone number "Building 6 | 909 274 4289" are listed. To the right of the contact information is a small illustration of a pair of pink flip-flops. The poster lists three main offerings: "TEXTBOOKS" with the note "We have copies of some textbooks in the library. They're for 2-hour library use only.", "LAPTOP OR IPAD" with the note "Request a laptop or ipad for the summer by submitting an online form", and "LIBRARY STUDY ROOMS" with the note "Reserve a library study room for up to 4 hours a day and up to 4 weeks in advance". At the bottom right, there is a small illustration of a beach ball. The text "The library has so much to offer you!" is written at the bottom left.

Sustainability Living

Diversity = Sustainability

Diversity is what drives and sustains progress in the natural and developed world. The more diversity present in an environment, population or region, the more resilient and sustainable they prove to be every time. The very success of nations and cultures around the world and throughout time is built on a culmination of varying perspectives from diverse individuals. Here at Mt. SAC we embrace diversity and welcome all students regardless of status or background to come together and build a sustainable and equitable future for all. In light of the recent actions taken by the current administration we have listed some valuable resources here below, on and off campus. Know that Mt.SAC stands with you all Mounties.
