Sheraton San Diego Hotel & Marina

April 23-24, 2015

Thursday (afternoon), April 23 – ALO & CEO Preconference Meetings

Friday (all day), April 24 – ACCJC Accreditation Standards Conference

Thank you for the expressions of interest in the upcoming ACCJC Accreditation Standards Conference. ACCJC is happy to present the new 2014 Accreditation Standards at this special event, resulting from the Review of Accreditation Standards and Practices which concluded earlier this year. Below please find preliminary information for your planning.

ACCJC hopes to open conference registration in mid to late January. At that time, the official agenda, conference registration fees, and a link to make discounted room reservations at the Sheraton San Diego Hotel & Marina will be made available. The ALO and CEO meeting registration will be limited to the respective ALO and CEO of each member institution. Due to space limitations at the hotel, it is likely that attendance at the full day conference on Friday will be limited to two people per member institution. If additional space is available following the initial registration period, ACCJC may open the conference to additional attendees.

In addition to the Standards Conference, ACCJC is beginning to plan a larger Annual Conference in the 2015-2016 Academic Year. Attendance is expected to be open to a larger audience from across the region.

Thank you in advance for your interest and participation in these upcoming events. Please stay tuned to the ACCJC website for an announcement that the ACCJC Accreditation Standards Conference Registration has opened.

Sincerely,

Krista Johns, J.D.
