

Women's Water Polo Earns a Trip to the Playoffs

November 12, 2014

(Walnut, CA) Mt. San Antonio College's Women's water polo team earned the #6 seed in Southern California Regional Championships to be held at Citrus College this Thursday through Saturday, November 13-15, 2014. The Mounties will receive a bye in the first round of the playoffs and will face #3 Grossmont College at 12:45 pm Friday, November 14. The winner of that game will play at 9:45 am on Saturday in the Regional Semi Final. The top two teams will advance to the CCCAA State Championships to be held at American River College, November 20-22, 2014.

The Mounties finished their regular season with an impressive 10-1 South Coast Conference record, their only loss coming to Chaffey College in the Conference Championship game 8-6 this past Saturday, November 8. The Mounties head coach Chris Jackson says "It was a tough loss for us, but we have to put it behind us and get ready for the next game."
