

2017 Strengthening Student Success Conference Proposal Accepted!

5/04/17

Dear Bill Scroggins,

The Strengthening Student Success Conference Program Committee is delighted to accept your session, "Preparing the College for Students - Not Just Preparing Students for College: An Organizational Strategy for Implementing Guided Pathways", for our 2017 Conference, to be held October 11-13 at the Hyatt Regency SFO in Burlingame, CA. Your presentation slot is during 80-minute Session 1 | 10/11/17 1:45 pm-3:05 pm.

Following is the session description:

As one of 30 colleges selected nationally by the American Association of Community Colleges to participate in their Guided Pathways program, Mt. San Antonio College will present its 9-step Guided Pathways model: using data to confront assumptions and redesign curriculum; incorporating student voices to establish career clusters; developing and mapping career clusters and meta majors; integrating contextualized learning led by faculty; linking maps to career exploration; integrating basic skills and discipline faculty with counseling; incorporating counseling to assist students in choosing an informed course of study; institutionalizing support; and impacting statewide policies. Participants will engage in dialog and sharing of common concerns and best practices.

With the following presenters:

Jeff Archibald, Mt. San Antonio College; Irene Malmgren, Mt. San Antonio College; Tom Mauch, Mt. San Antonio College; Bill Scroggins, Mt. San Antonio College

With the following requested changes:

Please be more specific of your pathways (bring samples) so that participants can learn from what you have already accomplished. Please also share student experiences going through your pathways.

Finally, please make sure that all presenters listed on this session register for the conference by June 1, 2017 to ensure you each have a spot. Presenters are entitled to a discounted registration rate, available only at this link: <https://www.regonline.com/SSSC17-presenters>

Additional registration and payment information is available here:
