

ASCCC Rostrum for September 2017 is Now Available

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges has announced that the September Rostrum is now available on the ASCCC website. The purpose of the Senate Rostrum is to keep members apprised of the latest developments throughout the Academic Senate and the greater field. Please share this publication widely with your college constituents – faculty, administrators, and staff. The publication will soon be disseminated to colleges in hard copy form. Featured articles include:

- Recognizing the Excellence of Our Colleagues through Statewide and Local Awards
- The Vision for Success and Guided Pathways: Responding to Change
- The California Community College and Intermediate Algebra
- Guided Pathways—What Are They and Where Are We Going?
- Civic Engagement and Civil Discourse: If Not Now, Then When?
- Curriculum Streamlining
- The History of the ASCCC Project: A Partial History of the Passage of AB 1725