A researcher from the RP Group, Educational Results Partnership, or WestEd will be reaching out to you to get a bit more information about your Gold Stars program. No later than April 30, please locate the appropriate administrator, dean, or chair, plus at least one faculty member who was associated with the program during the 2014-15 academic year, so the researcher can conduct a 30-minute phone interview.

In this interview, the researcher will document the scope of the program, why it is generating such strong returns, and identify the appropriate point of contact to respond to inquiries from employers and the press. This information will be used to create a profile of your Gold Star program featured on the Strong Workforce Stars eShowcase, http://dwmshowcase.com/workforce_stars.asp.

To support you in communicating the impact of your programs, we have created a media kit which is accessible at https://bit.ly/stars-media-kit. You may use these resources now.

The Chancellor's Office will be reaching out to your Public Information Officer to coordinate a statewide publicity push in June 2018. Additionally, your Strong Workforce Star programs will be listed on the Chancellor's Office website and highlighted in the Here to Career app to alert students that these programs generate significant positive returns.
