

RFP Announcement! Promises That Count: L.A. County College Promise Community of Practice - Proposal Deadline: January 5, 2018

12/06/17

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the California Community Foundation (CCF) and WestEd, I am pleased to invite all Los Angeles County College Promise program teams to submit a proposal to participate in the Promises that Count Community of Practice (CoP). The Promises that Count CoP will focus on developing and strengthening academic support and student services that are part of, or aligned with, College Promise Programs.

The attached RFP outlines the project details as well as the proposal instructions, timeline, eligibility requirements, and scoring structure.

Please note that the deadline for proposal submission is January 5, 2018. All proposals must be submitted through the California Community Foundation's online portal, <https://applyforgrants.calfund.org>. Guidelines for navigating the proposal submission system are outlined in a second attachment to this email.

Please contact either John Garcia or David Rey at the California Community Foundation with questions.
