

Welcome to AAUW!

Dear Bill Scroggins:

We are delighted that you have joined AAUW's nationwide network of more than 180,000 members and supporters and 2,000 communities and campuses. Working together at the local, state, and national levels AAUW empowers women and girls so that all can achieve their career and educational dreams.

Are you seeking to become involved in an interesting AAUW program? Would you like to take advantage of AAUW's exceptional member benefits and discounts? Need to update your address? All of the information you need is in the Member's Guide to AAUW: <https://www.aauw.org/files/2017/10/AAUWMemberGuide-nsa.pdf>.

The AAUW website is another great source of valuable information and "take action" tools. Please visit www.aauw.org regularly for the latest AAUW news and access to these helpful resources:

- Need-to-know legislative issues affecting women and what you can do about them
- AAUW programs available so that your community can work for real change
- Research that examines important issues through the gender lens
- Ways you can make campuses and workplaces more equitable for women and girls

As a new AAUW member you're also entitled to a host of services and programs that can enhance your professional and personal life, including

- Access to salary negotiation workshops
- Discounts on printing and office supplies for your personal as well as AAUW work
- Exclusive travel discounts, group insurance discounts and more

In addition to these benefits you will also receive a complimentary online subscription to AAUW Outlook. This award-winning magazine includes feature articles, interviews, book reviews, in-depth profiles, and legislative updates to keep you informed.

As a 501(c)(3) membership organization you can deduct most of your national AAUW dues when you pay your personal federal taxes. See details on your New Member Profile located on the reverse side of this letter.

We are pleased that you are part of our nationwide community, and we encourage you to make the most of your AAUW membership. If there is any way we can help you meet this goal, please feel free to contact us at 800.326.2289 or connect@aauw.org.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Churches
Chief Executive Officer
