1.	Given the transition to online instruction and meetings via Zoom due to COVID-19, ACCESS is requesting funds for Streamtext for captioning services allowing accessibility of remote learning to Deaf and Hard of Hearing students. Captioning in Zoom requires that instructors be notified and make the switch between captioners when they are working as a team. Streamtext is a platform that does not interrupt online instruction or create delays in delivering captioned material to students.	5,000.00		X
