Chapter 4 – Academic Affairs

AP 4230 Grading Symbols

Reference:

Title 5 Section 55023, 55024, 55051, 55052, 55052.5, and Education Code 76224

The Mt. San Antonio College Catalog contains the most recent information regarding Grading Symbols. This document is updated annually for currency and correctness using a review process that includes consultation with the Academic Senate.

EVALUATIVE SYMBOLS

Symbol	Definition	Grade Point
A	Excellent	4.0
B	Good	3.0
B C	Satisfactory	2.0
D	Less than Satisfactory	1.0
D F	Failing	0.0
P	Passing (at least Satisfactory)	Units Awarded Not Counted in GPA
		Used in Noncredit Courses
		OR
		Used in Credit and Noncredit
		Courses
NP	No Pass (less than	Units Not Counted in GPA
	Satisfactory or Failing)
		Used in Noncredit Courses
		OR
		Used in Credit and Noncredit
		Courses
SP	Satisfactory Progress	Noncredit Courses Only (satisfactory progress towards completion of course)
CR	Passing (at least Satisfactory)	Units Awarded Not Counted in GPA
NC NC	No Pass (less than	Units Not Counted in GPA
	Satisfactory or Failing)
WF	Withdrew Failing	0.0

*CR/NC options were replaced by P/NP options effective Summer 2009

- (a) The District may offer courses on a Pass/NoPass basis, Standard grade mode or both. The college's catalog will denote which options are available for a given course. The desired grade mode choice for credit courses can be made at registration but must be finalized no later than the 30% of the course. Standard letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) may be assigned for both credit and noncredit courses.
- (b) Upon completion of at least 30% of the credit course, the student may no longer make changes to the grade mode on file.

- (c) All units earned on a "pass-no pass" basis shall be counted in satisfaction of community college curriculum requirements.
- (d) Units earned on a "pass-no pass" basis shall not be used to calculate grade point averages. However, credit units attempted for which "NP" is recorded shall be considered in probation and dismissal procedures.
- (e) Noncredit grades do not have any effect on students' credit transcript.

EVALUATIVE SYMBOLS UTILIZED DURING COVID-19

Symbol	Definition	Grade Point
DV	Less than Satisfactory	1.0
	Earned during COVID-19
	pandemic
FV	Failing	0.0
	Earned during the COVID-19
	pandemic
NPV	No Pass (less than	Units Not Counted in GPA Satisfactory or Failing)
	Earned during COVID-19
	pandemic

These evaluative symbols were used from Spring 2020-Spring 2022. Mt. SAC we developed the "V" to recognize opportunities to participate in the learning process were limited during the Covid-19 pandemic and therefore grades from this time could reflect not only students' academic achieve, but also the impact of the pandemic on student performance.

NON EVALUATIVE SYMBOLS (credit courses only)

SYMBOL	DEFINITION
I	Incomplete - Incomplete academic work for unforeseeable, emergency, and justifiable reasons at the end of the term may result in an
	"I" symbol being entered in a student's record.
	The condition for removal of the "l" shall be stated by the instructor in a written record.
	This record shall contain the conditions for the removal of the "I" and the grade assigned in lieu of its removal. A final grade shall be assigned when the work stipulated has been completed and evaluated, or when the time limit for completing the work has passed. The
	"I" may be made up no later than one year following the end of the term in which it was assigned. The "I" symbol shall not be used in calculating units attempted nor for grade points.
W	Withdrawal - Assigned to students who officially withdraw from a class. "W" grades
	are not used in calculating GPA, but are used as factors in probation and dismissal
	procedures.

MW Military Withdrawal – Students who receive military orders compelling withdrawal from classes shall be permitted to withdraw at ar time with no adverse impact on academic records or enrollment status. Students sha show copies of military orders before the "MW" can be processed. Military withdrawa shall not be counted in progress probation of dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wath of these conditions and consiste with the district's required documentation.
classes shall be permitted to withdraw at ar time with no adverse impact on academic records or enrollment status. Students sha show copies of military orders before the "MW" can be processed. Military withdraws shall not be counted in progress probation dismissal calculations. EW Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consisted time with no adverse impact on academic records or enrollment status. Students shat show copies of military orders before the "MW" can be processed. Military withdrawar shall not be counted in progress probation dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste records or enrollment status. Students shat show copies of military orders before the "MW" can be processed. Military withdraws shall not be counted in progress probation of dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before to end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste show copies of military orders before the "MW" can be processed. Military withdraws shall not be counted in progress probation of dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the coursed was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste
"MW" can be processed. Military withdraws shall not be counted in progress probation of dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the coursed was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste shall not be counted in progress probation of dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the coursel was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wath of a student of a stud dismissal calculations. EW "Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before to end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and was granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister.
#Excused Withdrawal" (EW) occurs when a student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before to end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wath of a student requested and wath of the student requested and wath of t
student is permitted to withdraw from a course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before to end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister.
course(s) due to specific events beyond the control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister control of the student affecting his or her ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister.
ability to complete a course(s) and may include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister.
include a job transfer outside the geographic region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and was granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister region, an illness in the family where the student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister student is the primary caregiver, when the student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister.
student who is incarcerated in a California state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consistent.
state prison or county jail is released from custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consistent custody or involuntarily transferred before the end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wat granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consistent.
end of the term, when the student is the subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consister subject of an immigration action, or other extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consistent extenuating circumstances as described in (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste (a)(2), making course completion impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste impracticable. In the case of an incarcerate student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste student, an excused withdrawal cannot be applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste applied if the failure to complete the course(was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste was the result of a student's behavioral violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste violation or if the student requested and wa granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste granted a mid-semester transfer. Upon verification of these conditions and consiste verification of these conditions and consiste
min no alonioto loganda accamontation substantiating the condition, an excused withdrawal symbol may be assigned at any time after the period established by the governing board during which no notation i made for withdrawals. The withdrawal symb
so assigned shall be an "EW."
IP The "IP" symbol shall be used only in those courses which extend beyond the normal er of an academic term. It indicates that work i
"in progress" but that assignment of an evaluative symbol (grade) must await its completion. The "IP" symbol shall remain o the student's permanent record in order to satisfy enrollment documentation. The appropriate evaluative symbol (grade) and u credit shall be assigned and appear on the student's permanent record for the term in which the course is completed. The "IP" sha not be used in calculating grade point averages.
RD The "RD" symbol may only be assigned by t Office of Admissions and Records. It is to be used when there is a delay in reporting the grade of a student due to circumstances beyond the control of the student. It is a temporary notation to be replaced by a permanent symbol as soon as possible. "RI

shall not be used in calculating grade point averages.

Reviewed: May 14, 2013 Reviewed: December 6, 2014

Reviewed: June 9, 2015 Reviewed: May 10, 2016