

Academic Support Coordination

Quarterly Update to President's Cabinet

Dr. Madelyn Arballo, Provost, SCE & Dr. Romelia Salinas, Dean, LLR
September 27, 2022

---

HIGHLIGHTS

- Tutoring usage significantly increased compared to last academic year.
- Academic Support Kickoff Event, October 13, 2022, 11:00-2:00.
- Appointed new leadership for workgroups and provided with charge letters setting parameters and expectations for their work.
- MS Teams was set-up with channels for each workgroup.
- Coordinated with Financial Aid to promote FASFA applications across tutoring centers during Spring 2022 term.

TUTORING CENTER DATA

Student usage in academic support labs has increased significantly compared to last academic year. Transactions for the year were up by 58% compared to last year. The data shows that most of the usage is in-person services. Online tutoring continues to be used, but at much lower rate than in person services. See attached handout for usage data.

WORKGROUPS UPDATES

PIE & Outcomes (Michelle Sampat & John Cardenas, co-chairs)

- Created and administered a survey to all academic support centers to identify most important goals and outcomes for the group.
- Working on perfecting potential over-arching goals for all centers to include in their unit PIEs and share with larger group this fall.
- Drafting two AUOs for consideration by the larger group. Plan to conduct a common outcomes assessment across all centers in the coming spring.

Tutor Training (Kristina Alvarado-Grassmann & Trista Payte, co-chairs)

- Harmonizing core tutor training practices across tutoring centers that focus on shared principles of equity, accessibility, and student-centeredness.
- Working on how to increase enrollment if the Tutor 10 courses.

- Drafting survey questions to understand campus-wide training practices for tutoring in all areas/centers.

Marketing (Nicole Blean, chair)

- Drafted a marketing plan and timeline.
- Created a logo in collaboration with campus marketing to be used as part of a marketing campaign.
- Working with Eric Turner in IT to find better integration of academic support services to the campus website.
- Mounted wooden stakes laminated flyer advertising tutoring on campus.
- Increased use of social media to reach students.

Faculty Advisory Board for Academic Support (Dianne Rowley & Pauline Swartz, co-chairs)

- Drafting a Senate recommendation encouraging faculty to embed academic support centers and the Library into their course design
- Invited Equity coach to shared and discussed equity data, and discussed actions and resources needed to address issues.
- Identified strategies on how best to increase academic support to students taking Math in a post AB 705 environment.
- Invited guest speaker, Professor Monika Chavez (Library), to share PrepSTEP, an online library resource for Math, English, college success, computer skills, job preparation, career exam study and practice. Provided ideas on how resource can support tutoring.
