WIOA State Plan: Roadshow for Public Input

Purpose: Communicate the vision and strategies; receive feedback/input on how the State (via the State Plan) can better facilitate regional leadership, alignment with industry, system integration for scale, new ideas and innovative practices, etc; engage local boards and their stakeholders; set-up for WIOA regional planning.

Who: Local WDBs will host the regional events and invite the local system partners, local workforce board members, business, and labor.

The State partners (members of the WIOA Implementation Working Group) will outreach to their local counterparts.

Set-up: CWA and Local boards will handle logistics and set-up. We will plan for approx. 100 people at each event.

Agenda: Final agenda and topics to be developed. Below is a rough idea for a 3 hour event.

- 20 min - Welcome by local and State Board representatives
- 30 min - Presentation: Overview of plan vision
- 35 min - Presentation: Plan details re goals, strategies, etc
- 15 min - Break
- 40 min - CWA facilitate group discussions (Break out by supply/demand)
- 20 min - Report out from groups
- 20 min - Closing/Next steps
