You will first need to obtain your instruction permit through the DMV

1. Complete the application online: Driver's License Application
2. Go to a DMV office
 - a. Schedule an appointment first: Online Appointments
 - b. Have your ID and proof of residency ready: Acceptable ID's
 - c. Pay the application fee ($45) and pass vision test
 - d. Take the knowledge test
3. Before taking the knowledge test: Prepare
 - a. read through the online and physical copy of the handbook

②

If you need support learning how to drive:

Driving schools are a great way to get driver's education and on-the-road experience. If you would like to participate in driving school, please reach out to our Life Skills Specialist for support.

- You will first need to have obtained your driver's permit.
- Contact local driving schools and compare costs and services.
- Follow their instructions for payment and scheduling.
- Most driving schools will also provide you with a vehicle for the DMV driving test for an additional fee.
- If you do not feel ready after the first round of learning, you can pay for additional hours.

③

When you are ready to take your drivers test:

After 6 months of having your instruction permit, you can apply for your drivers license.

- Complete the application online: Driver's License Application
- Schedule and pass the behind-the-wheel driving test
- You will receive your driver's license in the mail!
