Registration Information

Registration begins on Thursday, November 12, 2026.

New Students

If you are new to the Adults with Disabilities (AWD) program, welcome! We are happy to have you as a student. All our classes are open-entry, which means you can sign up any time, as long as space is available. You can start taking classes in just four easy steps. If you need assistance with any of these steps, please call us at 909-274-4192 or send us an email at awd@mtsac.edu.

1. Complete the School of Continuing Education Application (noncredit) www.mtsac.edu/noncreditapp
2. Complete the AWD Student Intake Form
3. Meet with a counselor where you will complete an orientation and select your classes
4. You're ready to start classes!

Current Students

Students can register for classes online, in person, or by meeting with their counselor.

To register online, complete the noncredit application online each registration period. After completing the noncredit application, we will contact you and help you register for classes. The noncredit application is available online at www.mtsac.edu/noncreditapp

To register in person, complete a pink registration card. This registration card serves as your application and registration document. You can get a blank registration card from your professor. After filling it out completely, please give it back to your professor for processing.

To register with a counselor, make an appointment in advance. Students can make a counseling appointment at the AWD office front desk or by calling (909) 274-4192.

To register for impacted classes, such as Cultural Awareness and Cooking, see the following page for registration information.

Winter & Spring 2027 Impacted Classes Registration Dates

Additional Program Information

About the Adults with Disabilities (AWD) Program

Mt. San Antonio College School of Continuing Education offers specialized courses designed to enable students with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities to attend college and achieve their goals. Our classes provide students with the skills they need to transition into more independent living and working environments in the community, and to prepare for other college courses. The Mt. SAC college campus and surrounding community provide a rich environment for instruction and skill development.

Counseling

Our Adults with Disabilities (AWD) counselors provide career, academic, and personal guidance. If you need support, they can connect you with applicable campus and community services. They are here to help you achieve your goals! If you need counseling, please contact us at 909-274-4192 to schedule an appointment.

In-Class Support

People supporting students in AWD classes must be from an approved vendor agency or pre-approved as a classroom volunteer. Anyone who attends class who is not a student must complete the AWD In-Class Support Form each term. All people supporting students in class are expected to comply with college policies and procedures on and off campus.

Enrollment/Attendance Verification

If you are a participant in a program that requires enrollment and/or attendance verification (including CalFresh/Medical, childcare, unemployment, CTB, etc.), please inform a Mt. SAC staff member immediately so that we can assist you.

AWD Certificate Programs

Independent Living Skills

This certificate program provides a comprehensive curriculum designed to empower students with essential independent living skills. Through focused instruction, students will cultivate proficiency in areas such as community engagement, self-advocacy, and social interaction. This holistic approach equips students to confidently define personal life goals and effectively apply learned skills toward greater autonomy. Key topics explored will include navigating community resources, asserting personal needs and rights, and accessing vital community information.

Required courses: Interacting with Emergency Personnel and Authorities (ACCS IAEP), Cultural Awareness and Cooking (ACCS ILCAC), Practical Living Skills (ACCS ILPLS), Basic Budgeting and Money Management (ACCS ILSBB), and Self Determination (ACCS ILSD).

If you'd like to learn more about earning a certificate, please meet with a counselor. Contact us at 909-274-4192 to schedule an appointment.
