Subject: Campus Safety Leadership Changes

Date: 3/27/2018

Turned in 3/27 to Student Life @ 4:25 p.m.

Whereas: The associated students and thus the campus community as a whole shall have a seat at the table when discussing campus safety staffing considerations, policies, practices, and equipment.

Whereas: The individuals hired or under consideration to protect our community must be aware of and respect any instance ethnic, cultural, societal, and nation-wide phenomena that adversely affect student populations.

Whereas: Associated students will exercise the inherent right of shared governance to be extended to this particular process of college procedures.

Whereas: Such measures will reaffirm student confidence in the college and its governing bodies when dealing with controversial campus safety staffing transitions deemed difficult or reactionary.

Therefore: Be it resolved, that the A.S. Senate, the A.S. Executive Board, and the A.S. President approve Campus Safety Leadership Changes.

Subject: Campus Safety Leadership Changes

Date: 4/3/18

Whereas: The Associated Students with the campus community as a whole shall have a seat at the table when discussing campus safety staffing considerations, policies, practices, and equipment.

Whereas: The individuals hired or under consideration to protect our community must be aware of and respect any instance ethnic, cultural, societal, and nation-wide phenomena that adversely affect student populations.

Whereas: Associated students will exercise the inherent right of shared governance to be extended to this particular process of college procedures. Two student representatives shall occupy Additional Member #1 and #2 of the Screening and Selection Committee for the Screening & Selection Committee of the chief of police position for the Police and Campus Safety Department.

Whereas: We would like Mt. SAC to host an open forum for all potential candidates open to the Mt. SAC community. Such measures will reaffirm student confidence in the college and its governing bodies when dealing with controversial campus safety staffing transitions deemed difficult or reactionary.

Therefore: Be it resolved, that the A.S. Senate, the A.S. Executive Board, and the A.S. President approve Campus Safety Leadership Changes.
