Whereas: The A.S. President should prepare a manifesto within the first five weeks of the fall semester – in consultation with the Executive Board and Senate – detailing their specific policy goals for their term in office. The A.S. President should report on the progress being made throughout the school year toward the manifesto in an at least once-per-semester “State of the Associated Students” Address before the Senate.

Whereas: The A.S. President should, additionally, specify in their manifesto a single “Executive Vision” (the A.S. - Serve as an advocate and representative voice of the diverse student body.

- Meet monthly with the Community Relations, Elections, Faculty Relations, Political, Public Relations, and Student Services Senators individually
- Prepare a document within the first five weeks of the fall semester – in consultation with the members of the Senate and Executive Board – specifying the goals of Associated Students for the year. This document must be easily accessible for the public.
- Specify an ^{Presidential} “Executive Vision” for Associated Students in the aforementioned manifesto, detailing the key focus issue that they would like to undertake for the year. The A.S. President will provide a timeline for this Executive Vision in the manifesto, which Senate will have the opportunity to review.
- Deliver a formal “State of the Associated Students” address to the A.S. Senate at the beginning of the fall and spring semesters to keep the Senate apprised of the President’s vision for Associated Students, progress being made to meet that vision, and the next steps going forward. The attendance of all A.S. Officers is expected (i.e. Executive Board officers and Student Court officers).
