Subject: Amy Truong _____ Date: May 28, 2020 _____

Whereas: Amy Truong has served as the ICC Co-Chair of Mount San Antonio Community College, a member of Mount SAC's Associated Students Executive Board, a student member of the Auxiliary Committee and the Academic Senate, leader of Mount SAC's Recognized Student Clubs and Organizations, Vice-President of the Political Science Club, and an active member of the community.

Whereas: Amy Truong has served the community of Mount San Antonio College through their hard work and dedication, specifically, by planning, hosting, and leading the Join-A-Club events, chairing the Inter Club Council meetings, and continual contact with Mount SAC's Recognized Student Clubs and Organizations to help guide and advise them. Amy Truong is an active member of the Mount SAC community and is well known for helping all students in their path towards being involved on campus. Amy Truong has volunteered over 100 hours during the Fall 2019 Semester for Mount SAC, and despite hardships brought on by social isolation in light of COVID-19, Amy Truong continues to work and help students continue their involvement and activism. Amy Truong's devotion towards Mount SAC has significantly and undoubtedly improved the quality of life of our community.

Amy Truong has been greatly and passionately involved with ICC and through their involvement, they have been able to connect with many clubs. They have been a voice to those clubs through AS senate meetings informing everyone present of the events and updates from the ICC meetings. Amy had devoted their time to ensure that the ICC representatives of each club attending had a binder that they could use to keep important information of the ICC meetings. Amy has shown that they are dedicated and a caring individual and takes their time to talk to clubs and understand what they seek to accomplish during their time involved in the club. Amy is the perfect example of a leader who has not only devoted their time and effort to serve the Mt. SAC community but has also worked as a student leader with evident confidence and passion.

Alongside Amy Truong’s continuous efforts as an active member in the Mt.SAC community, they have been an outlet of support to many individual students. They have served as a support system to students in times where students faced challenges during their time at Mt. SAC. Amy has made a constant effort to understand student’s beliefs and opinions, all while being respectful and friendly. Amy has been a mediator and has been able to communicate in a mature and understanding manner. Amy has gone the extra mile to educate and inform students. And, Amy has been a substantial source of encouragement and motivation for students at Mt. SAC. Through Amy’s character, it is clear that they have shown to be a strong and supportive leader to the Mt. SAC community.

Whereas: Amy Truong’s spirit and compassion towards the greater student body of Mount San Antonio College is admirable, and exemplary of the attitudes, care, hard-work, and dedication that Associated Students strives for. Amy Truong embodies the virtues and values this Association seeks to promote.

Therefore: Be it resolved, that the A.S. Senate, the A.S. Executive Board, and the A.S. President approve this Recognition for Amy Truong.
