Subject: Recognition of Hector Sanchez for his strong support to students Date: June 5, 2020

Whereas: Hector Sanchez has served as the Counselor for Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) EOPS Program. His dedication to students has impacted not only those that are in the EOPS Program, but also the Mt. SAC Community. Mr. Sanchez, a UCLA graduate in Chicano and Chicana Studies, has been an amazing counselor to many first-year college students that are in need of guidance. Furthermore, his advice and encouragement have helped navigate numerous students through the community college experience. Mr. Sanchez is also always in support of students who are in need of help. Moreover, he has helped students attain the opportunity to develop their experience with leadership roles. His constant encouragement to students on accomplishing their goals has fostered tremendous help in boosting their confidence.

Whereas: Mr. Hector Sanchez has been a counselor to students of different stages in life. He is open to learning from students and how to also better educate those students that are open to looking at an outcome with a different perspective. Moreover, Mr. Sanchez truly is one of a kind counselor. Even during the COVID-19 pandemic, Mr. Sanchez helped a lot of students with the whole transfer process questions under these different circumstances. In addition, he wanted to know if their admission to a university will be impacted by all the changes going on. He is always looking out for his students and very much encourages them to get involved with however they can on campus. He has created a place where one could be proud of one's culture. Mr. Hector Sanchez is the representation and iconic example of a Latino achieving the American Dream, as well as inspiring many Latinos to do the same. We are very grateful for his humbling service to our wonderful Mt. San Antonio community college. It would be an honor to recognize a committed, supportive, and incredible counselor like Mr. Hector Sanchez.

Whereas: Mr. Hector Sanchez supports Associated Students events by promoting them to their students, as well as encouraging and supporting current and future student leaders.
