Students can register online. A flyer was displayed, the link will be posted on the ICC Facebook page.*

f) GUEST SPEAKERS

A. There were no guest speakers.

g) REPORT

A. ICC Advisor, Julia Walker

i. Updates

1. Mountie Fresh Day – April 10 – Call for Volunteers

a. Yellow half-sheets about club volunteers were collected; extras were distributed. Julia asked that clubs turn them in as soon as possible as we're still in high need for volunteers. This event can count as an A.S. collaboration so long as at least 5 club members volunteer at least 10 hours cumulatively.

2. Blood Drive – Mt. SAC vs. Cal Poly April 17, 18, and 19 at 9C Stage
  - a. Clubs are encouraged to have their members volunteer, like above, for A.S. collaboration points for Club of the Year.
3. Mountie Mentor Meeting – April 12 5pm- 7pm at 9C Stage
  - a. Flyer was posted on the ICC FB page (Mt. SAC Inter-Club Council). Students should look on the FB page for relevant content and should keep up with the postings.
4. Culture Fair on April 26
  - a. At the last meeting, Cross-Cultural Senator Taylor Muse invited clubs to participate in this event. Clubs can host a booth to represent a specific festival from a country. This can count as an A.S. Collaboration. The last day to sign up for a booth is April 16th. Email Taylor at Tmuse@student.mtsac.edu.
5. Inter-Club Council Service Scholarship
  - a. Deadline is April 16th. Whether you served in the recent past ICC history or are currently serving, you can apply. The amount awarded does vary; Michelle and Julia play no role in deciding who wins, the Scholarship Committee does. There are 3 qualifications: (1) must have paid the Student Activities Fee, (2) have made an outstanding contribution to the campus community through involvement in Mt. SAC student clubs, and (3) must confirm that you are a current or past ICC Rep and be verified within the last 3 years. The scholarship can be found by going to Mt. SAC Scholarships and clicking “APPLY NOW!” It is one of the scholarships listed.

B. ICC Co-Chair, Michelle Ravel

i. Updates

1. Binders

a. LEAD

- i. LEAD is another way for students to hone their leadership skills. If a student completes so many workshops (each is 1.5 hours), they can earn either (or both) a Personal Leadership certificate or an Organizational Leadership certificate. This is a great thing to mention on transfer applications.

b. Event Calendars

- i. This gives a tentatively-complete listing of events that clubs may collaborate with A.S. on to earn A.S. Collab points for Club of the Year. Events in this category are subject to the ICC Chair, email Michelle if you have any questions about which events count (Mravel@student.mtsac.edu).

c. Contact List

- i. This is the ICC Rep’s biggest resource in collaborating with other clubs on campus in order to earn Club Collab points towards Club of the Year. Clubs are encouraged to email each other to collaborate using the provided emails.

- d. Collaboration Forms
  - i. The ICC Chair encourages students from clubs to collaborate with each other to earn points towards Club of the Year; anyone can win! This is the most “difficult” way, and not so difficult at all! Clubs can earn club points for a maximum of 5 club collaborations and 5 A.S. collabs, each collab MUST have at least 5 people from the club and at least 10 cumulative hours spent together. For club collabs, there must be at least 5 members from each club.
- e. Pre-evaluation
  - i. ICC Reps were asked to fill out this evaluation and turn it in at the following ICC meeting on April 16th. This is so the current and future ICC Chairs know how to best serve the clubs.
- f. Posting Guidelines
  - i. Please read through this document and familiarize yourself, your team, and your advisor with it. Officers may also send their completed flyers for revision to the following email: AS_Postings@mtsac.edu
- g. Use of Facilities (Julia)
  - i. Please read through this document and familiarize yourself, your team, and your advisor with it.
- ii. ICC Co-Chair Vacancy
  - 1. Applications for the vacant ICC Co-Chair position opened on March 26th and closed on April 2nd at 12:00pm (emails were sent out and posts were made on the ICC FB page with this information). At the following ICC meeting (April 16th), eligible applicants will deliver a 1-minute speech and ICC Reps will each have 1 vote to decide who will fill the vacancy. The new Co-Chair will be ratified by the A.S. Executive Board the following day at the Executive Board meeting.

C. Associated Students’ Representatives

- i. Updates
  - 1. Inspiring Women Luncheon
    - a. Successful event held last week that acknowledged and honored some very inspiring Mt. SAC women for all that they bring to our campus and its environment of success.
  - 2. A.S. Elections
    - a. Elections for the Associated Students Executive Board (President, Vice President, 2 Senate Chairs, and 2 ICC Co-Chairs) is now open! Please vote on your portal: log in, under News & Announcements it says “Associated Students Election 2018 (April 2-5)”. Voting ends on April 5th at 11:59pm. Students can also choose to vote at the A.S. booth outside of the building 9C patio (snacks included!).
  - 3. 39th Congressional District
    - a. Clubs are encouraged to participate in this event, which will serve as a forum for students to ask House candidates of the 39th Congressional District any questions related to their platforms, etc. For more information, or to send any questions you'd like to be asked at the forum, please email A.S. President, Brian Moon, at Bmoon4@student.mtsac.edu.

4. A.S. Budget

- a. The A.S. budget tentative outline was presented to all present and clubs were invited to give their input on how they feel the student money should be allocated. Students are thus invited to A.S. Senate meetings (Tues/Thurs 3:00-4:30p) to speak during Open Forum.
